

PRIVACY NOTICE

1. Introduction

This document refers to personal data, this is defined as information about people (called the Data Subject) with whom we work, that is not already in the public domain.

The Data Protection Act (DPA), Privacy and Electronic Communications Regulations (PECR) and The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) which is EU wide, seek to protect and enhance the rights of data subjects. These rights cover the safeguarding of personal data, protection against the unlawful processing of personal data and the unrestricted movement of personal data within the EU. It should be noted that GDPR does not apply to information already in the public domain such as Companies House data.

2. Power Solutions (UK) Ltd

Power Solutions (UK) Ltd is a commercial energy broker that is principally involved in the B2B sector.

3. Personal Data

"Personal data" is defined in Article 4(1) of the GDPR:

"(1) 'personal data' means any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person ('data subject'); an identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person".

Power Solutions (UK) Ltd uses the information collected from you to provide quotations, make telephone contact and to email you information which we believe may be of interest to you and your business. In you making initial contact you consent to Power Solutions (UK) Ltd maintaining a dialogue with you until you either opt out (which you can do at any stage) or we decide to desist in promoting our services. Power Solutions (UK) Ltd also acts on behalf of its clients in the capacity of data processor.

Some personal data may be collected about you from the forms and surveys you complete, from records of our correspondence and phone calls and details of your visits to our website, including but not limited to personally identifying information like Internet Protocol (IP) addresses. Power Solutions (UK) Ltd may from time to time use such information to identify its visitors. Power Solutions (UK) Ltd may also collect statistics about the behaviour of visitors to its website.

Power Solutions (UK) Ltd website uses cookies, which is a string of information that a website stores on a visitor's computer, and that the visitor's browser provides to the website each time the visitor returns. WordPress.org uses cookies to help Power Solutions (UK) Ltd identify and track visitors and their website access preferences. Power Solutions (UK) Ltd website visitors who do not wish to have cookies placed on their computers should set their browsers to refuse cookies before using Power Solutions (UK) Ltd website.

Any information Power Solutions (UK) Ltd holds about you and your business encompasses all the details we hold about you and any sales transactions including any third-party information we have obtained about you from public sources and our own suppliers such as credit referencing agencies.

Power Solutions (UK) Ltd will only collect the information needed so that it can provide you with services. We do not sell or broker your data, although coincidentally there may be times when your information could be contained in data that Power Solutions (UK) Ltd has purchased from a third-party list.
