Hello...!

Specialist knowledge

At Alan Rogers our dedicated team has been creating rally itineraries for over 15 years.

Coupled with nearly 50 years experience of inspecting and selecting campsites, no one is better placed to help you on your way.

Because we have direct relationships with campsite owners in 26 countries, we know the best places to send groups and can often negotiate discounted rates. We can recommend campsites to meet your requirements or we can book a campsite of your choice if preferred.

Our dedicated rallies team pride themselves on their personal, friendly and efficient service. We'll offer impartial advice on the sites that best cater to your needs, and talk to rally attendees about the best way to get to the chosen location, best ferry options, necessary documentation and much more.

We know what makes a great rally!

We know it's about people. We want you to relax, knowing it's all taken care of. We want your party to enjoy themselves, meet like-minded friends and soak up new experiences in a relaxed social atmosphere.

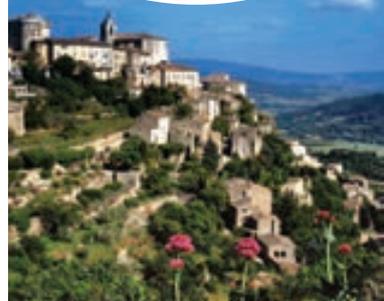

Catherine Morley

Having supported rally organisers for over ten years, Catherine has a wealth of experience in group travel abroad, as well as a great relationship with many campsite owners. Her friendly manner and ability to overcome even the greatest challenges has made her very popular with rally marshals from all over the UK.

Lynn Smith

Lynn has been with Alan Rogers for over 5 years and her operational knowledge of campsites and travel is second to none. She offers support to the members of your party during the booking process and offers invaluable advice on suitable ferries.

Leave it to the experts

We'll take care of the hassle

We understand how much hard work rally organisers put into their tours. It can be a daunting task, with plenty of pressure to 'get it right'. We work with you to make life simpler. We take the worry from you and organise every aspect of your itinerary, before processing all bookings, liaising individually with your party members.

Customised itineraries

We're here to offer all the support you require. We'll work with you to understand the kind of itinerary you're looking for. We'll research and find suitable campsites and explore all the optional extras that make a rally really special.

Whatever you want to include on your rally, we're here to make it possible. Many rally marshals find welcome drinks to be a great way to break the ice, and also like to provide a meal on the last night. We're happy to arrange these at the venue of your choice, as well as organise excursions, coach tours, boat rides, meals, or anything else your group might be interested in.

We'll negotiate on your behalf with ferry operators, using our volume buying power to secure great rates.

A rally unique to you

As a result, each of our rallies is tailor made to suit your requirements. No two itineraries are ever the same. We've arranged some fantastic trips for previous rallies, including Swarovski Kristallwelten in Austria and the Italian and Austrian Grand Prix. Wherever your imagination takes you, let us make the vision a reality for you.
