Company Overview
Who we are: Founded in 1998, and a leading force in British dance theatre for over twenty years, the Jasmin Vardimon Company has built a reputation for challenging and visually arresting dance productions infused with social and political commentary. With the opening of JV H.O.M.E, a new building located in Ashford, Kent and dedicated to the company's research, creation and multi-disciplinary creative learning programme, Artistic Director Jasmin Vardimon continues to add to an extensive body of critically acclaimed, artistically respected work both for her own Company and for some of the world's leading arts institutions that she has collaborated with across the world. Click here to watch our documentary on the JV H.O.M.E build process.

Having developed a uniquely individual choreographic voice, distinguished by beautifully detailed movement, insightful humour, and engaging drama, Vardimon is renowned for her physical and theatrical style. Incorporating innovative technologies, text and dance, her work is accentuated with an acute observation of human behaviour. As such, it is widely accessible, socially relevant, and always delivered by her company dancers with passion, skill, and commitment.

Jasmin Vardimon has been an Associate Artist of Sadler's Wells since 2006, and her company tours nationally and internationally, performing at high profile theatres throughout the World.

Job Description

This dynamic, cross-departmental role offers the opportunity to work across both the Creative Learning and Marketing teams, providing a well-rounded experience of the organisation's artistic, educational, and audience development work.

This role will include assisting with:

- planning and delivery of Creative Learning programmes, including community classes, workshops, and educational activity (dance experience essential for assisting classes).
- administrative coordination (e.g. travel and accommodation) and practical rehearsal and production support.
- front-of-house operations at JV H.O.M.E., ensuring a professional and welcoming audience experience.
- administrative and evaluative support, including collecting and organising data on programme delivery, engagement, and outcomes.
- marketing and communications by documenting activity and assisting with content creation, reporting, and promotional materials (e.g. social media, newsletters, and case studies).
- Any other duties as reasonably required by the Company.

The role will be based at JV H.O.M.E, Creative Enterprise Quarter, Javelin Way, Ashford TN24 8FN.

Skills and development

Candidates should be working towards:

- Strong communication and interpersonal skills.
- Good organisational and time-management abilities.
- An interest in and knowledge of the arts sector, particularly dance.
- Confidence in using computer applications such as Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, Outlook).
- An interest in working with children, young people, and community groups.

- Some practical experience in dance or movement-based practices, with an interest in applying this in educational settings.

Desirable but not essential:

- Previous experience supporting creative projects or events.
- Experience working in community, education, or outreach settings.
- Experience in front-of-house, customer service, or hospitality roles.
- Awareness of safeguarding practices.

Personal Qualities

- Enthusiastic and committed.
- Keen to learn and develop new skills.
- A proactive and flexible attitude towards new tasks and learning opportunities.
- Reliable and punctual.
- Able to think independently and work well as part of a team.
- Willingness to take initiative and show curiosity.
- Attention to detail and care in all aspects of work.
- Act as an advocate for the company, representing its work with professionalism and enthusiasm at all times.

Future Prospects

During the course of the placement, you will meet and network with other creative organisations which might present future opportunities. We will also provide a work placed mentor who can offer career advice and guidance, helping you to develop your CV and offer support with job applications and interviews.
