

Student Success: critiques of employability

An Advance HE podcast

Dr Roger Dalrymple, Associate Dean: Student Outcomes at Oxford Brookes University and Dr Andrea Macrae, Principal Lecturer, Stylistics and Student Experience at Oxford Brookes University are joined by Dr Maia Pal, Senior Lecturer in International Relations at Oxford Brookes University, to discuss the findings of a literature review on employability 2016-21, with particular focus on how employability is conceptualised, human capital theory and how theories from the global north fair in other parts of the world.
