Come with me – Leora and Harry Salter

Parashat בא has the final three plagues and the different commandments from G-d on how to remember the exodus from Egypt. The final plague and the aftermath of the last plague make up most of the second half of the Sedra but we can also learn a lot from the first half, and in particular, the first verse.

The first verse of this week's Sedra says (Chapter 10, Verse 1): "Hashem said to Moshe, '(בא) Come to Pharaoh, for I have made his hearty and the heart of his servants stubborn so that I can put these signs of Mine in his midst.'" A key question arises from this verse. Surely, Hashem should have told Moshe to "go to Pharaoh" and instead of "come to Pharaoh." Why does it say "בא" (come) and not "לך(go)?

Firstly, Rashi on the verse doesn't have a problem with the word "בא" and explains this verse to mean that Hashem is telling Moshe to warn Pharaoh about the imminent plague of locusts. Even though this doesn't seem to bother Rashi, other commentators explain the "בא" in a different way.

Rabbi Elie Munk, the father of the late Lady Jakobovits, comments on this terminology earlier in Parashat Va'eira. Chapter 9, Verse 1 states exactly the same as the beginning of this week's Parasha. Here, Rabbi Munk explains that whenever Hashem tells Moshe to "come to Pharaoh" it implies that Moshe should meet Pharaoh in Hashem's name. Furthermore, it means that Moshe met Pharaoh without Pharaoh's authorisation and without the heavy security protecting the entrance to the throne (Ohr HaChaim).

Tosphot (Parashat Va'eira, Chapter 8, Verse 19) also has an explanation for the command by G-d to Moshe. He comments that three of the ten plagues (frogs, pestilence and locusts) have G-d telling Moshe to "come to Pharaoh". The explanation given for this is that Hashem is telling Moshe to go and visit Pharaoh alone in Pharaoh's palace. A warning to Pharaoh alone was sufficient and this is why Moshe is told to "come to Pharaoh".

These two explanations are similar and go on the same premise that Moshe was speaking to Pharaoh alone and without Pharaoh's permission. There is one more explanation given which is also key.

The Kotzker Rebbe brings a beautiful explanation to this and says that when Hashem tells Moshe to "come to Pharaoh" he is really telling him to "come WITH ME to Pharaoh". Hashem is really telling Moshe that "I will come with you on your mission".

With the last explanation we can learn a very important message about our Emunah in G-d. According to Rabbi Munk, Moshe was meeting Pharaoh without permission and mixed with the Tosphot, we understand that Moshe was visiting Pharaoh alone, which must have been daunting for him. However, with the last explanation, we see that Pharaoh might have been alone but Moshe certainly wasn't, G-d was by his side to help him through and deliver the message he had to deliver. From this we can learn that Hashem is always with us and will always help us through the difficult and worrying times.

Family Shabbaton - Kinloss Children's Choir (Years 3-6)

During January, the Years 3-6 children services will be learning 'Etz Chaim', with the aim of singing along with the Chazan at the Family Shabbaton (27th Jan), both in the Main Shul and Minyan (roughly 11am/11:15am)

It would be lovely to have as many children as possible join the children's services on Shabbat 6th, 13th and 20th Jan, when they'll be learning the song, so they're ready to join the choir on 27th January.

As well as the incentive of being in the choir, each week your child attends the service in January, they'll be entered in to a raffle prize draw. So if they come for all three weeks, that's three raffle entries! Please email rabbijosh@kinloss.org.uk after each Shabbat to confirm your child's attendance and raffle entry.

If they can't attend for all three weeks, they can practice at home too ...
