Combat trauma doesn't end when military service is over.

In fact, it is often just the beginning.

Kinloss - Combat Veteran Israeli Soldiers / Peace of Mind Programme

"These are the soldiers who give Israel peace of mind. So friends, it is our duty to help them find their peace of mind." Rabbi Lord Jonathan Sacks zt"l

The Kinloss community is proud and privileged to be hosting 15 veteran Israeli soldiers between the 29th of October and the 5th of November 2023 who are participating in the Peace of Mind Programme.

About the programme:
Peace of Mind works with IDF veterans from high-risk combat units who trained together, fought together and served in the reserves together. The group we are hosting were involved in the 2nd Lebanon War in 2006, and served in Gaza. They tragically lost three members of their unit during this time. Led by two therapists, the programme consists of approximately 65 hours of group counselling and 12 individual sessions for those needing further care. The programme gives them the place and time to process their experiences.

A vital part of the programme is the week the group spends with Jewish communities abroad. The distance from Israel, and support of Jewish communities overseas, plays a key role in creating a safe, quiet, and supportive environment. Through hosting the veterans for the most intense phase of Peace of Mind, while showering them with love and appreciation, Jewish communities play an active role in shaping society by promoting a healthy transition to civilian life.

As well as hosting the group and helping to organise their itinerary for the week, we are asking our wonderful community to make donations to help cover the cost of this special programme. Donations can be made through the British Friends of Herzog Hospital using this link https://www.jgive.com/new/en/gbp/donation-targets/108807, alternatively, please see details on attached document.
Please use Kinloss POM as a reference to ensure the money is allocated appropriately.

LORD DANIEL FINKELSTEIN

BOOK LAUNCH AND 'IN CONVERSATION' | TUESDAY 31 OCTOBER, 8PM

Daniel Finkelstein's family experience at the hands of the two genocidal dictators of the 20th century is one of miraculous survival. This is a story of love and murder. A story of how the great forces of history crashed down in a terrible wave on two happy families; of how it tossed them and turned them, and finally returned what was left to dry land. It's a story of brilliant ingenuity, great bravery, and almost unbelievable coincidences.

Daniel Finkelstein is a British journalist and opinion writer. A former Executive Editor of The Times, he continues to write for the paper. He has been Political Columnist of the Year four times and recently joined the board of Chelsea Football Club. He was appointed to the House of Lords in 2013.
