The Odd Inverted Nun's by Rebbetzen Tali Harris

This week's Parsha, Behalotcha, is action packed and filled with many little stories. In addition to all the little stories, we also encounter a set of "Nuns", the Hebrew letter, which are posed to act like brackets. The phrases inside the bracketed area are as follows: "When the ark traveled, Moshe would say, "Arise Hashem and may Your enemies disperse, and may those who hate You flee from before You." And when it rested he would say, "Give tranquility, Hashem, to the myriads of thousands of Israel." Why have these pesukim bracketed off? What is the significance?

In order to understand the purpose of these pesukim being highlighted, we need to understand them in their context. Prior to this, the general mood of the nation is one of anticipation and positivity. The entrance into Israel is impending and the nation is organizing themselves and preparing. In Moshe's conversation with his father-in-law, Yitro, Moshe is exuding positivity towards the concept of entering the land; the word טוב, good, is repeated multiple times in their conversation.

This marks a stark contrast to the stories which come after the inverted Nuns where we see that the mood has shifted to one of negativity. The nation is sinning and complaining and even reflect fondly back on aspects of their time in Egypt.

R' Yosef Solovetichik explains that the 2 phrases within the Nuns each constitute an entire book of Torah, meaning that there were in fact 7 books, rather than 5 books in the Torah. They are the "first and the last verses of a book that Moshe had yet to write regarding the victorious battles and the great salvation that would have led to the ultimate redemption." He explains that these phrases are representative of the ideal which was not achieved. Had everything gone to plan and had the nation not began to sin and complain, Moshe would have led them straight to Israel and the books between the 2 phrases would have been completed. He writes "Moshe never entered the land; Israel's history took a precipitous turn and all that remained are these two verses".

R' Yair Kahn elaborates that the section preceding the inverted Nuns is the first version of Bamidbar. It described the ideal. The sections following the Nuns records a separate version, the failed attempt at implementation. He explains that while that initial version only remained a reality for a short time, we hope that ideal will become reality again and that we can revert to a time without sins and where the words within the inverted Nuns will come to fruition.

Dear Friends

I hope you are well and had an enjoyable Shavuot. It was great to see the shul so busy all the way from Tikkun Leil on Tuesday night through to seuda on Thursday evening. I'd like to thank all those who made this possible and in particular Rabbi Dov & Freda Kaplan, who once again enhanced our Yom Tov.

If there's one thing I've realised in my first fortnight as Chair, it is that life moves fast at Kinloss. And so, it is with much regret that I am writing to let you know that our long-serving and much-loved Chief Operating Officer, Shimon Gillis, will be leaving us towards the end of July. For the best part of a decade Shimon has been the glue that has held Kinloss together. There is not a part of our community life that has not been both impacted upon and bettered by Shimon. More than an employee, Shimon is (and will continue to be) a huge part of the Kinloss family. It goes without saying that he will be sorely missed.

There is a personal note from Shimon to the community below and we will of course arrange an appropriate send-off and a chance for us all to say 'goodbye'. In the meantime, I'm sure you will join with me in wishing Shimon the very best of luck in the next stage of his career.

Yours,

Barry Frankfurt
Chair of Finchley United Synagogue (Kinloss)

Dear Members of Finchley United Synagogue,

After much consideration, I have decided that it is time for me to pursue new challenges and opportunities in my career. I will be moving to become the Chief Operating Officer at Jewish Futures Trust.

I have thoroughly enjoyed my time at Finchley United Synagogue and am grateful for the opportunities and experiences that I have gained during my time here.

I want to express my sincere thanks to the current and previous executive, council and all my colleagues for their support and guidance during my time at Kinloss. I have learned so much from each and every one of you and am truly grateful for the professionalism, dedication, and passion that you all bring to your roles.

I will treasure the memories and friendships I have made at Kinloss and the Shul together with the community will always hold a special place in my heart.

I am confident that Kinloss will continue to thrive and grow.

Thank you once again for the incredible journey and I wish Kinloss all the very best for the future.

Best Wishes,

Shimon Gillis
Chief Operations Officer
