PURIM PROGRAMME TIMINGS SEE INSIDE

This Shabbat, the Shabbat preceding Purim, is Parshat Zachor. Haman was a descendant of Amalek, and regarding Amalek, we have a mitzvah to never forget their evil deeds. To fulfil this commandment, we take out an extra Sefer Torah for the Maftir this week, and read: זָכוֹר אֶת אֲשֶׁר עָשָׂה לְךָ עֲמָלֵק בְּדֶרֶךְ בְּצֵאתְכֶם מִמִּצְרַיִם (Devarim 25:17)

The Jewish People had just miraculously left Egypt, slaves freed in the most magnificent way, the world was in awe, and then Amalek attacked. They attacked without any provocation; the Jewish people were not travelling towards any territory owned by Amalek. Amalek was driven by profound hatred which defied logic (as we unfortunately see in the anti-Semitism we are experiencing today).

In every generation Amalek attacks us. On a spiritual level, in each of our souls there is an Amalek. Amalek spiritually represents coldness and apathy towards the Torah. The verse describes how 'Amalek encountered you on the way' - אֲשֶׁר קָרַךְ בְּדֶרֶךְ (Devarim 25:18), the word קָרַךְ can also mean 'cooled you' (קָרָה/cold). Amalek cools us off and tells us not to get too enthusiastic about Torah. Amalek is the numerical equivalent of סִפֵּק/doubt. Amalek plants a seed of doubt in our minds, by laughing at Torah learning and practice. Amalek does not come with any logical arguments but cynically scoffs at every reason to do a Mitzvah.

Amalek's whole purpose is to wear us down. What Amalek represents spiritually is the concept of indifference, coldness and doubt. Amalek attacked the stragglers at the back, so too Amalek attacks us spiritually when we are weak. In the Haggadah we say: 'In every generation one must see himself as if he personally came out of Mitzrayim' (which is why we say Shema twice a day). The word מִצְרַיִם/ Egypt, means 'narrow straits'. This refers to breaking out of our personal limitations, overcoming instant gratification and base character traits such as greed and anger, which undermine our behaviour. Once a person achieves their personal 'Exodus', overcoming personal challenges and establishing knowledge and understanding of the truth as determining forces in their life, the battle is almost won. There is one remaining 'enemy' which still poses a threat, Amalek. When we left Egypt, the first nation to attack us was Amalek. Spiritually Amalek 'catches' us doing something good and cannot tolerate it. Amalek does not challenge the truth with arguments, but just disregards it.

How can one respond to Amalek, irrational doubt and apathy within us? The Torah tells us, זָכוֹר/Remember. Faith transcends reason, logic is limited by the finite nature of the mind, faith on the other hand allows us to relate to the infinite truth of G'd. Faith in G'd is integral to the Jewish soul, it is not something that needs to be attained, but just needs to be revealed. Amalek is irrational; the answer to Amalek is זָכוֹר/remember our soul's reserves of faith, which when uncovered can conquer every moral challenge.

We are a unique people, as the Megillah states: "There is one people (although) scattered and spread among the peoples of the world, (yet) their laws are different from those of other peoples." We have preserved our unity and uniqueness despite being dispersed in the world, because we have preserved our Torah and Mitzvot. Parshat Zachor gives us a practical lesson on how we can continue doing so on a daily basis thereby bringing happiness to ourselves, our people, and humanity as a whole.

Shabbat Shalom, Good Shabbos and Happy Purim! Chazan Eli and Nechama

PURIM 2024

This week is Parashat Zachor.

All adults have a Torah obligation to hear the reading of Parshat Zachor, which records Amalek's attack on the Jewish people on their way out of Egypt, in order to fulfil the Mitzvah of remembering what Amalek did and obliterating their name.

This Mitzvah is accomplished the Shabbat before Purim

Kinloss is tasked with raising £7,500 per year towards the total and to achieve this we are looking for donations starting at just £75 per family.
