Dvar Torah Parshat Pekudei – Eliane Fachler

In the second aliyah of this week's parsha, Pekudei, the Torah describes how Betzalel and Ahaliav assemble the breastplate for the Kohen Gadol, the High Priest. The breastplate was a square piece of gold with 4 rows of stones; three in each row. These stones are known as "אבני מלאים" – “the stones that filled”. Why is such a name given to these stones? What does it mean?

The simple meaning is that these stones literally filled the ‘gaps’ in the breastplate that were specifically there to house the 12 stones, but there is a much deeper meaning here. These twelve stones had engraved on them the twelve names of the sons of Yaakov, the shevatim. Each of these stones filled a unique space that was specifically left for each one in the breastplate.

Each stone fills a gap that cannot be filled by another stone. So too, each one of the twelve tribes made their own unique contribution to the Jewish people, as their descendants still continue to do. These twelve stones essentially represent us and our unique contributions to our community. We each fill a void that cannot be filled by anyone else. Simultaneously, if one stone would be lacking in the breastplate, the whole plate would look empty and incomplete.

Since joining your beautiful community, it has been humbling to witness the unique contributions that each of you make to the shul. I give a bracha that the Kinloss community continues to thrive off the special contributions that are made by each of their devoted members. Good Shabbos!

COMMUNICATION SENT TO KINLOSS MEMBERS ON MONDAY 11TH MARCH 2024

Dear Members

This will be my penultimate communication as Chair of the Selection Committee. As we stated back in July last year, the aim was to present a candidate to our community before Pesach, to allow the opportunity for our new Rabbi and Rebbetzen to be in post by Rosh Hashana. We have now completed the final round of interviews and assessments and the selection committee unanimously agreed to recommend Rabbi Dr Yoni Birnbaum and Rebbetzen Elisheva Birnbaum to the Kinloss Council as our new Rabbinical couple. As Darren and Jeremy will explain below, Council have approved this and we will now move towards finalising contractual terms and introducing them to the community.

We will explain in more detail both the full process and why the committee felt the Birnbaums are best suited to be our new Senior Rabbinic couple in an information pack that we will share with you all shortly. As a very short interim summary though, Rabbi Birnbaum grew up in a United Synagogue shul, has deep learning, halachic and spiritual, a PhD level secular education, and has presence, oratory, great ideas and leadership skills in abundance. Rebbetzen Birnbaum is a successful paediatric occupational therapist, warm and welcoming and has been loved in her communities by all those who have come in contact with her. We look forward to you meeting them with us on the Shabbat outlined below.

Many thanks again - we will circulate the committee's full recommendation pack shortly.

Elliot Renton
Independent Chair, Kinloss Rabbinical Couple Selection Committee

Paul Lang

Dear Members,

We are delighted to announce that Finchley United Synagogue Council members unanimously chose Rabbi Dr Yoni Birnbaum and Rebbetzen Elisheva Birnbaum as our preferred candidate.

As a leading United Synagogue community, we were fortunate to have a large pool of talented and accomplished applicants apply for the roles. Rabbi Dr and Rebbetzen Birnbaum impressed the Rabbinical Selection Committee with their extensive Torah knowledge, vast community experience, strong engagement and leadership skills and both the Rabbinical Selection Committee and Council were unanimous that Rabbi Dr and Rebbetzen Birnbaum displayed exceptional talents which we are confident will lead the community forward to new heights.

We are very excited by what this means for our community and hope you will be able to join us over April 5-6 to meet Rabbi Dr and Rebbetzen Birnbaum. Following this Shabbat, Kinloss members will be invited to vote for our new Rabbinic couple. In line with United Synagogue bye-laws, we would need at least 75% of votes to be in favour of the appointment.

A huge thank you to Elliot Renton and the Rabbinical Selection Committee for their efforts in guiding us to this pivotal moment.

We are also very appreciative of the efforts of those who have contributed through this interim period; the Rabbinical team, office staff, caretaking staff and members of the community. In particular, we would like to express our thanks to Rabbi Fine, Rabbi Josh and Rebbetzen Tali Harris, Rabbi Laitner, Rabbi Heller and Shimon Gillis. Thanks to their efforts, we are confident that Rabbi Dr and Rebbetzen Birnbaum will discover a friendly and welcoming community that is ready to embark on the exciting journey they have planned for us.

Best wishes
Darren Lewis and Jeremy Mindell

London Eruv

The North West London Eruv changed Jewish life across our community. But, we must not take it for granted.

It costs just £45,000 per year to maintain our Eruv and the responsibility to pay for this is split between the communities that both depend on it and benefit from it.

Kinloss is tasked with raising £7,500 per year towards the total and to achieve this we are looking for donations starting at just £75 per family.

To donate please visit kinloss.org.uk/eruv
