News release

25 April 2023

Bowmark promotes Simon Kaufman to partner

Bowmark Capital has promoted Simon Kaufman to partner. Simon joined the firm in 2016 from KPMG having spent eight years in its transaction services team. Since joining Bowmark, Simon has played a key role in the development of the firm's managed IT services and software practices and has been involved in a number of investments including Littlefish, Focus Group, ASK4, Tax Systems, Kubrick and The Instant Group.

Charles Ind, managing partner, commented: "We are delighted to announce Simon's promotion in recognition of his significant contribution to Bowmark's success and development. His appointment will further strengthen our leadership team as we continue our active investment programme in growth-oriented services and technology companies."
