4. How many people are currently part of your core company?

This is the number of people who you consider to be responsible for the day-to-day management of your company, rather than project-based associates or freelancers.

5. What are the roles of the people in your core company?

Please describe these in your own words, we know that many responsibilities will be shared and that you may not have assigned yourselves formal roles at all.

6. What is the current legal status of the company (if any)?

You don't need to be registered to attend a surgery, but if you are already incorporated it is useful to know what your current structure is.

7. Why are you interested in changing the legal status of your company?

This could mean incorporating for the first time, or switching to a different legal status if you are already incorporated. Are there specific structural or financial advantages you are looking for? Opportunities you are hoping to unlock?

8. In the future, do you see the organisation working primarily in subsidised theatre, or do you have commercial ambitions?

9. Do you have any access needs in relation to your participation in the online session?
