NOMINATING FOR THE DIANA AWARD

The Diana Award is bestowed upon inspiring, courageous, compassionate young people, positively transforming the lives of others in Diana, Princess of Wales’ memory and legacy.

This nomination guide will help you complete the nomination form and assist you in providing the information we require. Remember, the more information you include the better chance your nomination has of being successful.

You can nominate online at https://diana-award.org.uk/award/nomination-centre/ and if you have any questions please get in touch with the Awards Team via the information below.

Please note you cannot begin a nomination online and complete it at a later date (drafts cannot be saved) so we recommend reviewing this guide thoroughly before you begin the nomination form online.

NOMINATOR_ CHECK LIST
NOMINATOR CHECKLIST

Before completing your nomination form ensure to consult the checklist provided below – if all criteria on this checklist are not met your nomination will not be assessed.

Nominator Checklist:

- I know the nominee in a professional capacity i.e. I am not a family member. You cannot nominate someone for a Diana Award if you are related to them, even if you also have a professional relationship with them.

- As nominator I will not enter myself as the beneficiary or reference provider.

- My nominee is aged 9-25 years.

- My nominee has been carrying out their activities for a minimum of 12 months.

- I have completed all sections in the nomination form according to the allocated word count.

- I have provided a supporting testimonial from a direct beneficiary of my nominee.
COMPLETING THE NOMINATIONS FORM
COMPLETING THE NOMINATIONS FORM

Sections 1-3

Section 1: Nominator Information

You will be required to provide your full name, job title, relationship to nominee, phone number and email. Please note if you do not know the nominee in a professional capacity then unfortunately, your nomination will be invalid. If you are a family member, your nomination will not be accepted and we suggest finding someone who knows your nominee in a professional capacity and is aware of the activities they have been carrying out. This could include e.g. a school teacher, other member of school staff, a youth worker, university tutor, member of a management team, business, community or church leader.

Section 2: Nominee Information

You cannot nominate yourself for a Diana Award. Young people are nominated for the Diana Award through a retrospective nomination process only.

We believe this is special as young people do not work towards the award, rather they go about their activities with no expectation of reward.

Section 3: Nominee Details

As nominator, you will be required to provide the following essential information about your nominee: full name, age, gender, ethnic group and any hard to reach areas; (in local authority care, not in full time education, employment or training, from an economically deprived area, a refugee or asylum seeker, registered disabled, member of the travelling community, or eligible for free school meals).

Sections 4-5

Section 4: Organisation Details
You will be required to provide your organisation’s name, and postal address, including the region/nation/country. Note that if your nomination is successful this is the organisation name that will be displayed on the Roll of Honour on the 1st July.

Section 5: Shine a Spotlight on your Nominee
This is the main body of the nomination form so please be as informative and concise as possible.

Opening Statement: Please provide a maximum 100 word statement encompassing why you are nominating your nominee and the impact that their work has had on the lives of others or to a certain cause.

Top tips from the Judges:
Try to include the overarching theme of the activities the young person is involved in rather than listing each different activity to maximize your word count. The judges want to see a clear vision and passion that is close to the heart of your nominee.

Make sure you include evidence of the impact of your young person’s activities, rather than just descriptive words. E.g. if your young person is ‘inspirational’ or ‘passionate’, show the judges evidence of this in their activities.

Make sure to include the impact of your nominee’s activities. What has the result been? E.g. money raised through fundraising or people reached through campaigning.

Write in full sentences and paragraphs rather than bullet pointing. The judges want to hear their story.

Don’t assume judges know the acronym/reference/organisation name you’re referring to – give them some context and explain what this is.

Take your time to read things over and spell/grammar check before submitting.

Answer all sections thoroughly, but be concise; stick to the recommended word count!
CRITERIA & GUIDANCE QUESTIONS

When completing the main sections you will be asked for evidence to demonstrate how your nominee has achieved set criteria. Use the guidance questions to help you in each section and the notes and examples in the tables to help you further. The word count is min 150 and max 300.

| Vision                                        | What selfless activities has your nominee undertaken and for what cause(s)? Include the specific activities you are nominating for (e.g. forms of voluntary or fundraising work for charity, activism or campaigning, activities being carried out in school or online, or the type of care work being carried out in the community).
Why did your nominee decide to get involved in their chosen cause(s)? What sparked their interest to get involved in the first place? Why are they passionate about the cause? |
| Social Impact                                 | Describe the impact your nominee’s activities have had on the lives of others. Evidence this with facts. Examples of impact for different types of social action could include:
Fundraising – total amounts of funds raised for a cause and what the funds will be used for.
Volunteering – relieving teacher’s time in class through classroom assistance or providing assistance in a charity shop.
Campaigning – numbers of people reached through the campaign and numbers of people who have taken action as a result of the campaign.
Care work – improvements in quality of life for those that have been cared for. |

SUPPORTING EVIDENCE & NEXT STEPS
SUPPORTING EVIDENCE & NEXT STEPS

Beneficiary/Testimonial:
Please upload a written statement (no more than 200 words) from someone who has benefitted from your nominee’s activities and include their full name and a contact email address. This could be any young person or adult who can personally detail the benefit they have received as a direct result of the nominee’s actions/activities. The beneficiary cannot be the nominator and it can only be a family member if the nominee is a carer for that family member. You will be required to state the relationship of the beneficiary to the nominee.

Referee:
Please include the full name, job title, organisation, relationship to nominee and a contact email address for another adult who is not a family member of the nominee who can act as a referee to provide a reference. You will be required to state if they are happy to be contacted by The Diana Award team as part of our random spot checking.

Next Steps:
Once you have submitted your nomination you will automatically receive a confirmation email. We will keep you up to date with the progress of your nomination as it is processed and if we require any additional information. Good luck with your nomination and please do come back to us if you would like clarification around any stage of the nomination process.

The Diana Award is one of the few award schemes accredited to GOLD Standard by The Independent Awards Standards Council. The Diana Award are proud to announce that we are one of the few UK awards organisers to be accredited with the Gold Standard Awards Trust Mark!

The Awards Trust Mark Scheme was established with the aim of encouraging more award programmes to focus on their own ethics and transparency. The scheme scrutinises everything from criteria, scoring, feedback, transparency and judging.

Chris Robinson, Co-Founder of the Independent Awards Standards Council, and MD of the world’s first award entry consultancy: “The Diana Award is an exemplar in how awards should be operated. Their attention to every detail, from the transparency of the scoring system, to the briefings provided to judges, to the quality of websites, the clarity of the entering process, and the quality of customer service throughout is exemplary. I hope more schemes will aspire to this level of service and also earn the Gold Standard Awards Trust Mark.”
