Helping Your Teenager Build Resilience for the Next Phase of Life

For Derby and Derbyshire Parents and Carers of Secondary School Aged Children

Wednesday 2 June 2021 13:00-14:00

Fully funded by NHS Derby and Derbyshire CCG and delivered by Martin Burder from Art of Brilliance

Martin Burder

This workshop deals with the phase of your teenager's life after exams.

In the run up to results days, how you can best support your young people (and yourself) will be critical in maintaining positivity and optimism.

Martin Burder will outline the likely actions from teens as they move to the next phase of life. This will arm you with a sense of control and what to do as soon as the session is over.

Course fee £0.00

Places are limited. To book, go to our June 2021 events . This course is hosted online via MS Teams. To join the session, click on 'View the event' in your booking confirmation email.

Visit Derby and Derbyshire Emotional Health and Wellbeing.uk for resources and other courses.

Cancellations and Non-attendance

If you are unable to attend for any reason, please cancel or amend your place via Eventbrite using the email address you registered with. You can also access your booking via your original confirmation email. Alternatively, please email us as soon as possible at training.events@derbyshire.gov.uk as non-attendance deprives other delegates of a place.

Although these are advertised as fully funded events, all courses incur costs to cover the tutor, resources and administration. As this is public money being invested in training across Derby City and Derbyshire, we have a duty to use it responsibly.
