However, a director need not declare an interest in a Conflicting Transaction:
- 5.1 1 if it cannot reasonably be regarded as giving rise to a conflict of interest;
- 5.1 2 if, or to the extent that, the other directors are already aware of it (and for this purpose the other directors are treated as aware of anything of which they ought reasonably to be aware); or
- 5 1 3 if, or to the extent that, it concerns the terms of his or her service contract that have been or are to be considered by a meeting of the directors or by a committee of the directors appointed for that purpose; or

6. ACTUAL OR POTENTIAL CONFLICTS

- 6.1 A director who is the subject of a Permitted Conflicting Situation shall not (in accordance with Section 180(4)(b) of the Act) be in breach of his or her general duties to the Company merely as a consequence of such Permitted Conflicting Situation.

- 6.3 Any authorisation of a Conflicting Situation pursuant to article 6.2 to be given by the directors at a meeting of the directors will be effective only if:
- 6.3.1 the meeting of the directors is duly convened in accordance with the articles;
- 6.3.2 at such meeting any requirement as to quorum is met without counting the director or directors to whom the authorisation relates; and
- 6.3.3 the authorisation was agreed to without any such director or directors voting, or would have been agreed to if the votes of all such directors had not been counted.
- 6.4 Where authorisation of a Conflicting Situation pursuant to article 6.2 is to be given by way of a unanimous decision of the directors in accordance with Model Article 8, the director or directors to whom the authorisation relates shall not be considered 'eligible directors' for the purposes of Model Article 8.
- 6.5 Any Conflicting Situation which has been authorised in accordance with article 6.2 shall (unless stated otherwise in the terms of such authorisation) be given on the basis that:

- 6.5.1 the authorisation may be revoked by the directors at any time by giving the director concerned notice in writing;
- 6.5.2 the director concerned shall not be required to disclose any confidential information relating to such Conflicting Situation to the company if to make such a disclosure would result in a breach of a duty or obligation of confidence owed to him or her in relation to or in connection with that Conflicting Situation;
- 6.5.3 the director concerned may (and shall if required by the directors) absent himself or herself from meetings or discussions of the directors at which anything relating to that Conflicting Situation will or may be discussed;
- 6.5.4 the director concerned may (and shall if required by the directors) decline to review information provided by the company which will or may relate to or be connected to that Conflicting Situation; and
- 6.5.5 such authorisation shall extend to any actual or possible conflict of interest which may reasonably be expected to arise out of such Conflicting Situation so authorised.
- 6.6 Where a Conflicting Situation has been authorised by the directors pursuant to article 6.2:
 - 6.6.1 the director concerned shall not, as a result of such Conflicting Situation, be accountable to the company for any remuneration, profit or other benefit which he or she derives from such Conflicting Situation,
 - 6.6.2 the director concerned shall not, as a result of such Conflicting Situation, be accountable to the company for any benefit for which he or she (or a person Connected with him or her) derives from such Conflicting Situation;
 - 6.6.3 any transaction to which the company is a party shall not be liable to be voided or set aside on the grounds of the Conflicting Situation, and
 - 6.6.4 the director concerned shall not, as a result of such Conflicting Situation, breach any of the duties he or she owes to the Company by virtue of sections 171 to 176 of the Act, provided such director acts in accordance with any terms, limits and conditions as the directors impose in respect of such authorisation (or which are implied by the articles).

- 6.7 The fact that a Conflicting Situation has been authorised by the directors does not negate the requirement for directors to declare the nature and extent of their interest in any excising or proposed transaction or arrangement with company in accordance with the Act and the articles.

7. SHARE CAPITAL

In these Articles, unless the context requires otherwise, references to Shares shall include Shares issued after the date of adoption of these Articles.

8. ALLOTMENT OF SHARES

- 8.1 Subject to these articles and to section 551 of the Act, all Shares shall be under the control of the directors who may allot, grant options over or otherwise deal with or dispose of them to such persons, at such times and generally on such terms and conditions they think fit.
- 8.2 Save to the extent authorised by these articles, or by an ordinary resolution of the shareholders, the directors shall not exercise any power to allot shares or to grant rights to subscribe for, or to convert any security into, any shares in the company (including the power granted by section 550 of the Act).

8.3 In accordance with section 567(1) of the Act, sections 561 and 562 of the Act shall not apply to the company and are hereby excluded generally in relation to the allotment by the company of equity securities (as defined in section 560(1) of the Act).

9.1.1 lodged at the company's registered office or at such other place as the directors have appointed;

9.1.2 accompanied by the certificate for the shares to which it relates, or such other evidence as the directors may reasonably require to show the transferor's right to make the transfer, or evidence of the right of someone other than the transferor to make the transfer on the transferor's behalf; and

9.1.3 in respect of only one class of share

10. WRITTEN RESOLUTIONS

10.1 Written resolutions of the company may be proposed by the directors in accordance with section 291 of the Act. The shareholders may require the company to circulate a written resolution in accordance with section 292 to 295 of the Act.

10.2 For the purposes of section 297 of the Act, a written resolution will lapse if it is not passed before the end of such period as the directors may determine (provided such period is detailed on the copy of the resolution circulated pursuant to section 291 of the Act), but in the absence of such determination the period shall be 28 days beginning with the circulation date of the resolution.

10.3 In the case of a shareholder which is a body corporate, the signature of a director or the secretary and, in the case of joint holders of a share, the signature of any one of such joint holders, shall be sufficient for the purpose of signifying a shareholder's agreement to a written resolution.

11.1 In accordance with the Act, the company is not required to hold an annual general meeting.

12.1.1 each Relevant Officer shall be indemnified out of the company's assets against all costs, charges, losses, expenses and liabilities incurred by him or her as a Relevant Officer in the actual or purported execution and/or discharge of his or her duties; or in relation to them and in relation to any Relevant Company's activities as trustee of an occupational pension scheme (as defined in section 235(6) of the Act); including (in each case) any liability incurred by him or her in defending any civil or criminal proceedings, in which judgment is given in his or her favour or in which he or she is acquitted or the proceedings are otherwise disposed of without any finding or admission of any material breach of duty
