We report on the accounts for the year ended 31 March 1996 set out on pages 4 to 8.

Respective responsibilities of directors and reporting accountants

As described on page 6 the company's directors are responsible for the preparation of the accounts and they believe that the company is exempt from an audit. It is our responsibility to carry out procedures designed to enable us to report our opinion.

Basis of opinion

Our work was conducted in accordance with the Statement of Standards for Reporting Accountants, and so our procedures consisted of comparing the accounts with the accounting records, and making such limited enquiries of the officers of the company as we considered necessary for the purposes of this report. These procedures provide only the assurance expressed in our opinion.

In our opinion:

- (a) the accounts are in agreement with those accounting records kept by the company under Section 221 of the Companies Act 1985; and
- (b) and having regard only to, and on the basis of, the information contained in those accounting records,
 - (i) the accounts have been drawn up in a manner consistent with the accounting requirements specified in Section 249C(6) of the Act; and
 - (ii) throughout the year ended 31 March 1996 the company satisfied the conditions in Section 249A(4) of the Act for exemption from an audit of the accounts, and did not, at any time within that year, fall within any of the categories of companies not entitled to the exemption specified in Section 249B(1).
