Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). The financial statements are required by law to give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period.

In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed,
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business (see note 1)

The directors confirm that they have complied with the above requirements in preparing the financial statements. The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Auditors

The directors have relied upon the provisions of Sections 249AA and 388A of the Companies Act 1985 and have resolved not to appoint auditors.

By order of the Board

Notes to the financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2007

1 Principal accounting policies

These financial statements are prepared on the going concern basis, under the historical cost convention and in accordance with the Companies Act 1985 and applicable accounting standards. The principal accounting policies are set out below.

Going concern

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis which assumes that the company will continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. This is on the basis that the intermediate parent company, Legrand France SA, has confirmed that it will provide financial support for the foreseeable future and for at least 12 months after the date of approval of these financial statements.

Cash flow statement

The company is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Legrand UK Limited and is included in the consolidated financial statements of Legrand France SA, an intermediate parent company, which are publicly available. Consequently, the company has taken advantage of the exemption given in FRS 1 (Revised 1996) and accordingly, a separate cash flow statement is not presented for the company.
