Statement of directors' responsibilities

The directors are responsible for preparing the Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). Under company law, the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period.

In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent, and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Auditors

The directors have relied upon the provisions of section 480 of the Companies Act 2006 and have resolved not to appoint auditors.

Notes to the financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2010

1 Principal accounting policies

These financial statements are prepared on the going concern basis, under the historical cost convention and in accordance with the Companies Act 2006 and applicable accounting standards in the United Kingdom. The principal accounting policies, which have been applied consistently throughout the year, are set out below

Going concern

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis which assumes that the company will continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. This is on the basis that the intermediate parent company, Legrand France SA, has confirmed to the company's parent company Legrand UK Limited, that it will provide financial support for the foreseeable future and for at least 12 months after the date of approval of its financial statements.

Cash flow statement

The company is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Legrand UK Limited and is included in the consolidated financial statements of Legrand SA, the ultimate parent company, which are publicly available. Consequently, the company has taken advantage of the exemption given in FRS 1 (revised 1996) and accordingly, a separate cash flow statement is not presented for the company.

	2010	2009
	£'000	£'000
Amounts owing to Legrand Electric Limited	1,454	1,454
	1,454	1,454

The amount owing to Legrand Electric Limited is a non-interest bearing loan with no fixed date for repayment. The Directors of Legrand Electric Limited have confirmed that no repayments are due within the next twelve months.

3 Deferred taxation

There is no potential liability for deferred taxation at 31 December 2010 (2009 Nil).
