PART 1 - GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE COMPANY'S ACTIVITIES AND IMPACT

In the space provided below, please insert a general account of the company's activities in the financial year to which the report relates, including a description of how they have benefited the community.

The main purpose of the 'Armed Forces & Veterans Breakfast Clubs CIC' is to act as a formal representation of affiliated individual Armed Forces & Veterans Breakfast Clubs, to provide an umbrella of support for the growing number of over 370 clubs in 14 countries around the globe, to enable them to be supported by the Armed Forces Covenant, the MOD, and military/veteran support organisations & charities, presenting tangible access to Armed Forces Veterans, their dependants and families.

The CIC supports the clubs themselves, whose main purpose is to end the social isolation of veterans, the most common denominator in Armed Forces Veterans' mental health issues and suicides.

(Please continue on separate continuation sheet if necessary.)

of the individual Armed Forces & Veterans Breakfast Clubs is to provide familiar, safe, friendly and informal environments for veterans to 'return to the tribe', have breakfast together in the company of other veterans, to enjoy the camaraderie and banter and they support each other 'naturally' due to their military 'conditioning'.

YouGov research undertaken in September 2017 found that:-

*41% of British Armed Forces veterans felt lonely or isolated after leaving the military
34% said they had felt overwhelmed by negative feelings, and over a quarter (27 per cent) admitted to having suicidal thoughts after finishing their military service.
More than three in ten (31 per cent) admitted they have just one or no close friends.
53% would be unlikely to discuss any feelings of loneliness with a family member or close friend, which suggests there is limited support for these veterans.
The most common reasons veterans gave for feeling lonely and isolated included: 41% said losing touch with friends in the Armed Forces, 33% said physical or mental health issues and 23% admitted to struggling to relate to anyone in civilian life"*

Because of the difficulties GDPR has created for the storage of data, and because we have deliberately adopted a more 'informal' approach, we do not record the numbers, but we estimate from Facebook Group membership, and the popularity/'hits' on the AFVBC Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/afvbcnet>, there are around a quarter of a million veterans & family members involved, and this number increases daily.

This alone, and the fact that since I first began to promulgate the model, we have founded more than one affiliated Armed Forces & Veterans Breakfast Club every week since June 2014, and given rise to innumerable 'copy-cat' versions in several countries as well as the UK. I was in fact recognised for my work with a Prime Ministers 'Point of Light Award', <https://www.pointsoflight.gov.uk/armed-forces-and-veterans-breakfast-clubs/> such has been the success.

The organisation has continued to serve veterans all through the pandemic, using Facebook 'Rooms', 'Messenger', 'Zoom', 'Teams', the Facebook Groups themselves, phone calls, and even 'door-knocking', to try and ensure that all vets, no matter what their circumstances, remained connected and looked after. Clubs have organised walks and delivered food parcels, met outdoors... whatever it has taken.

The CIC is the umbrella organisation to a fantastic success story, largely unrecognised outside of military/veterans' circles, but it has saved many lives (I've had the conversations and messages which prove it!).

PART 2 – CONSULTATION WITH STAKEHOLDERS – Please indicate who the company's stakeholders are; how the stakeholders have been consulted and what action, if any, has the company taken in response to feedback from its consultations? If there has been no consultation, this should be made clear.

The stakeholders are Armed Forces veterans, often serving personnel, and their families. We discovered from the inception of the organisation that this 'informal' approach has been extremely successful, and this is backed up by Academic Research (copy enclosed) published on 'Sage' by a Doctor Jim McDermott, Associate Tutor at The University of Leicester <https://journals.sagepub.com/doi/10.1177/1360780420905845> His research interests focus on the experiences of Armed Forces veterans particularly those who succeed in civilian life, and this research confirmed our model was exceptionally successful.

Dr McDermott was assisted in his study by our organisation, and this in itself indicates the great success of the organisation.

If this is not enough, we ask our members to provide feedback; we have a CIC-supported website www.afvbc.NET with a page where we publish submitted testimonials by attendees of clubs from around the world <https://www.afvbc.net/testimonials/>

Here is an example submitted by a female veteran called 'Lisa':

I have always had the feeling that I don't belong anywhere, it was a very lonely feeling. Due to illness I had to stop working, which made the isolation even harder for me. I came across the Hartlepool Veterans Breakfast Club one day while browsing on Facebook. I joined the group and decided to go along one Saturday morning, I was only going to stay for half an hour. Due to having CPTSD, I have severe anxiety and panic attacks, I walked into the group and sat down. Within 5 minutes I felt like I was home, it was what I had been missing and searching for. I stayed for hours, I can't put into words what been in this group has done for me. I have made good friends and we do all sorts outside of the group, the banter and support is amazing. This group has been a lifeline for me and others in the group. I would really recommend you go and join the group in your area.
