Approval of New Articles of Association

A special resolution was proposed to replace the Articles of Association of the Company with new Articles of Association that will reflect current company legislation. In addition, since 2009 changes in company law have meant that the provisions contained in the current Memorandum of Association must be moved into the Articles of Association to remain effective. The Memorandum will become a historical document and there is no requirement for an amended Memorandum of Association.

The new Articles of Association had been circulated to members prior to the AGM. The following resolution was unanimously approved:

"That the Articles of Association of the Company be replaced with the new Articles of Association initialled by the Chairman."

a person or persons representing not less than one tenth of the total voting rights of all the Members

A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if the poll has not yet been taken, and the Chair of the meeting consents to the withdrawal

Polls must be taken immediately and in such manner as the Chair of the meeting directs

CONTENT OF PROXY NOTICES

Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a “proxy notice”) which states the name and address of the Member appointing the proxy, identifies the person appointed to be that Member’s proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed, is signed by or on behalf of the Member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the Directors may determine, and is delivered to the Company in accordance with the Articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate

The Company may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form and, subject to the Act, by a particular time and may specify different forms for different purposes

Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions

Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself

DELIVERY OF PROXY NOTICES

A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the Company by or on behalf of that person

An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the Company a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given

A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates

If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor’s behalf
AMENDMENTS TO RESOLUTIONS

1. An Ordinary Resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by Ordinary Resolution if
   1.1 notice of the proposed amendment is given to the Company in writing by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 48 hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the Chair of the meeting may determine), and
   1.2 the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the Chair of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution.

2. A Special Resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by Ordinary Resolution, if
   2.1 the Chair of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed, and
   2.2 the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.

If the Chair of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the his/her error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.

RESOLUTIONS IN WRITING

1. A resolution executed by such number of Members as would have been required to vote for the resolution had it been proposed in general meeting at which all of the Members were present and voting shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a general meeting duly convened and held.

2. For the purposes of this Article 42:
   2.1 a resolution shall consist of one or more written instruments (including faxes) or one or more Electronic Communications sent to an address specified for the purpose by the Secretary, or a combination of them, provided that each such written instrument and Electronic Communication (if more than one) is to the same effect,
   2.2 a written instrument is executed when the person executing it signs it,
   2.3 an Electronic Communication is executed when the person executing it sends it provided that it has been authenticated in such manner (if any) as the Secretary shall prescribe,
   2.4 the Members need not execute the same written instrument or Electronic Communication,
   2.5 a resolution shall be effective when the Secretary certifies that sufficient evidence has been received by him/her that the resolution has been executed in accordance with this Article 42,
   2.6 if no Secretary is appointed, the chair shall perform the functions of the Secretary under this Article 42,
   2.7 the resolution must be accompanied by a statement informing the Member how to signify his/her agreement to it and the date by which this is to be done, and
   2.8 a proposed written resolution will lapse if it is not passed before 28 days from the circulation date.
PART 6 LIABILITY OF MEMBERS AND DISSOLUTION

LIABILITY OF MEMBERS

Each Member undertakes that, if the Company is wound up while he/she is a Member or within one year after he/she ceases to be a Member, he/she will contribute an amount to the assets of the Company as may be required for-

2. payment of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up, and
3. adjustment of the rights of the contributors among themselves, provided that such amount shall not in aggregate exceed £1

DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS ON WINDING UP/DISSOLUTION

If upon the winding up or dissolution of the Company there remains, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the Members, but shall be given or transferred to such other body or bodies having objects similar to the objects of the Company, and which shall prohibit the distribution of its or their income and property to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the Company by Article 3 above, such body or bodies to be determined by the Members at or before the time of dissolution, and if and so far as effect cannot be given to such provision, then to some other body or bodies the objects of which are the promotion of charity and anything incidental or conducive thereto (whether or not the body or bodies in question shall be a member of members of the Company) to be similarly determined.

PART 7: ADMINISTRATIVE ARRANGEMENTS

MEANS OF COMMUNICATION TO BE USED

1. Any notice to be sent to or by any person pursuant to these Articles including a notice calling a meeting of the Directors shall be in writing and may be delivered or sent by post or using Electronic Communications to an address for the time being notified for that purpose to the person giving the notice. 4. Subject to Article 45 3, any notice, if served by post, shall be deemed to have been served 48 hours after it was posted, and in proving such service it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter containing the notice was properly addressed, prepaid and posted. A notice or other document sent by Electronic Communication shall be deemed to have been delivered 48 hours following the date on which the communication was sent and electronic confirmation of receipt shall be conclusive evidence that a notice was given to a facsimile number or email address. If a notice, document or information posted on the Company's website was already on the Company’s website at the time the notice was sent to the Member, it will be deemed to have been sent on the day the notice was sent but if the notice, document or information was not on the Company’s website on the date the said notice was sent then it will be deemed to have been sent on the day on which it appears on the website.
WEBSITE COMMUNICATION

The Company may send any notice, document or other information to Members by making them available on the Company's website provided that

The Company must notify each Member who has agreed to receive communications through the Company's website of the presence of the information on the website, the website address, the place on the website where the information can be found and how to access the information.

Any notice, document or information posted on the Company's website must be in a form that the Member can read and take a copy of. The notice, document or information must be available on the Company's website for either twenty-eight days from the date the notification was sent to the Member or for such other period as may from time to time be specified in the Act.

COMPANY SEAL

Any common seal may only be used by the authority of the Directors.

The Directors may decide by what means and in what form any common seal is to be used.

Unless otherwise decided by the Directors, if the Company has a common seal and it is affixed to a document, the document must also be signed by at least one authorised person in the presence of a witness who attests the signature.

Copies need not be sent to a person for whom the Company does not have a current address as defined in section 423 of the Act.

49.4 The Company must, pursuant to section 424 of the Act, comply with the obligations set out at Article 49.3 not later than

49.4.1 the end of the period for filing accounts and reports to the Registrar of Companies, or

Such rules or bye-laws shall be binding on all Members PROVIDED THAT no rule or bye-law shall be inconsistent with, or shall affect or repeal anything contained in, these Articles.
