Directors' report

Registered number: 03839285

The directors present their report and financial statements for the year ended 30 November 2014.

Results and dividend

The company made no profit or loss in the year ended 30 November 2014 (2013 - £nil).

No dividend was paid during the year (2013 - £nil) and the directors do not recommend the payment of a final dividend (2013 - £nil).

Principal activity

The company has not traded during the current accounting year nor the preceeding accounting year.

Going concern

No material uncertainties that cast significant doubt about the ability of the company to continue as a going concern have been identified by the directors. On the basis of their assessment of the company's financial position the company's directors have a reasonable expectation that the company will be able to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. Thus they continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting in preparing the annual financial statements.

Directors

The directors of the company who served during the period were as follows:

R D Button (resigned 15 January 2014)
S W Mertz
T H Creighton

Except as noted above, all directors served throughout the year and are still directors at the date of this report.

The Articles of Association do not require directors to retire either by rotation or in the year of appointment.

Directors qualifying third party indemnity provisions

The company may indemnify one or more directors of the company against liability in respect of proceedings brought by third parties subject to the conditions set out in the Companies Act 2006 and the company may purchase insurance for this purpose. Time Warner Inc. has purchased a directors and officers liability insurance policy for the benefit of the company and its directors and such policy was in force during the period and is in force as at the date of approving the Directors' Report.

Auditors

For the year ended 30 November 2014 the company was entitled to exemption under section 480 of the Companies Act 2006.

Members have not required the company to obtain an audit in accordance with section 476 of the Companies Act 2006.

Small companies' exemption

In preparing the Directors' Report, the directors have taken advantage of the small companies' exemption under section 415(A) of the Companies Act 2006. The Directors have also taken the exemption under section 414(B) not to prepare a Strategic Report.

On behalf of the Board

Statement of directors' responsibilities in respect of the financial statements

The directors are responsible for preparing the Directors' Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). Under company law, the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently; and
- make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

1 Accounting policies

Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with applicable United Kingdom law and accounting standards.

The company has taken advantage of the exemption from the requirement to prepare consolidated financial statements available under section 401 of the Companies Act 2006, as it is a wholly-owned subsidiary undertaking of Time Warner Inc., a company incorporated in the United States of America, which prepares publicly available consolidated financial statements (see note 8).

Going concern

No material uncertainties that cast significant doubt about the ability of the company to continue as a going concern have been identified by the directors. On the basis of their assessment of the company's financial position the company's directors have a reasonable expectation that the company will be able to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. Thus they continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting in preparing the annual financial statements.

Statement of cash flows

The company has taken advantage of the exemption in FRS 1 (Revised) "Cash Flow Statements." A statement of cash flows has not been prepared as the company is a wholly owned subsidiary undertaking of Time Warner Inc., a company incorporated in the United States of America, which prepares a statement of cash flows (see note 8).

Related Parties

The company has taken advantage of the exemption in FRS 8 not to disclose related party transactions with fellow wholly owned subsidiary undertakings of Time Warner Inc., a company incorporated in the United States of America, which prepares publicly available consolidated financial statements (see note 8).

2 Profit and loss account

The company has not traded during the year and has made neither a profit nor a loss. No profit and loss account has therefore been prepared.

There were no employees in the current or prior year.

3 Directors' remuneration

The directors received no remuneration from the company for their services to the company during the current or prior year. The directors of the company were paid by fellow group undertakings in the current and prior year.
