Disclosure of information to the auditors

So far as each person who was a director at the date of approving this report is aware, there is no relevant audit information, being information needed by the auditor in connection with preparing its report, of which the auditor is unaware. Having made enquiries of fellow directors and the Group's auditor, the director has taken all the steps that he is obliged to take as a director in order to make himself aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the auditor is aware of that information.

Independent auditors

A resolution to re-appoint Ernst & Young LLP as independent auditors of the Company and to authorise the Director to agree their remuneration will be proposed at the Annual General Meeting

Risks and uncertainties

The company's primary risks and uncertainties mirror those of its main investment, Newcastle United Limited. Full disclosure is given in its financial statements for the year ended 30 June 2012

Going concern

The Director has prepared financial forecasts and expects to maintain suitable financial facilities from its bankers and ultimate shareholder to provide adequate ongoing finance consistent with these forecast requirements. The Director has concluded that the Group remains a going concern and has accordingly prepared these financial statements on the going concern basis.

Statement of Director's responsibilities

The Director is responsible for preparing the Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the Director to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the Director has elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). The financial statements are required by law to give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Group and the company and of the profit or loss of the Group for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the Director is required to

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- State whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements, and
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

Independent auditors' report to the members of St James Holdings Limited

We have audited the financial statements of St James Holdings Limited for the year ended 30 June 2012 which comprise the Profit and Loss Account, the Statement of Total Recognised Gains and Losses, the Balance Sheet and the related notes 1 to 13. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

This report is made solely to the company's members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the company's members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the company and the company's members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Respective responsibilities of Director and auditors

As explained more fully in the Director's Responsibilities Statement set out on pages 2 and 3, the Director is responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view. Our responsibility is to audit the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland). Those standards require us to comply with the Auditing Practices Board's (APB's) Ethical Standards for Auditors.

Scope of the audit of the financial statements

An audit involves obtaining evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements sufficient to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or error. This includes an assessment of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the company's circumstances and have been consistently applied and adequately disclosed, the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by the Director, and the overall presentation of the financial statements. In addition, we read all the financial and non-financial information in the Report and Financial Statements to identify material inconsistencies with the audited financial statements. If we become aware of any apparent misstatements or inconsistencies we consider the implications for our report.

Opinion on the financial statements

In our opinion the financial statements

- give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs as at 30 June 2012 and of its profit for the year then ended,
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice, and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Opinion on other matter prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion the information given in the Director's Report for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Companies Act 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- adequate accounting records have not been kept by the parent company, or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us, or
- the parent company financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns, or
- certain disclosures of directors' remuneration specified by law are not made, or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit.

St James Holdings Limited
Notes to the financial statements at 30 June 2012

1 Accounting policies

St James Holdings Limited ('the Company') is a company incorporated in the United Kingdom

Group financial statements are not prepared as permitted under Section 401 of the Companies Act 2006 Therefore, these financial statements present information about the Company as a separate entity and not about its Group

The company has taken advantage of the exemption in FRS 1 Cash Flow Statements from the requirement to produce a consolidated cash flow statement dealing with flows for the group as the company's cash flows are included within those of its ultimate parent undertaking

The financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention, and in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United Kingdom

The Group financial statements are presented in sterling and all values are rounded to the nearest thousand pounds (£000) except where otherwise stated

a) Fundamental accounting concept

At 30 June 2012 the company had net liabilities of £296,000, which includes loans from Mr M J W Ashley totalling £132,144,000 Net current liabilities were £142,101,000 The Director has received a commitment from the ultimate controlling party, Mr M J W Ashley, that he will continue to provide the Group with financial support so that it can meet its debts as they fall due for a period of at least 12 months from the date of approval of these financial statements or up until the date of any change in control On this basis, the Director has prepared the financial statements on a going concern basis

b) Turnover

Turnover represents income arising from sales of management services to group undertakings to group undertakings, third parties, and excludes value added tax

c) Taxation

The charge for taxation is based upon the result for the period and takes comprises current taxation and taxation deferred through timing differences between the treatment of certain items for taxation and accounting purposes

Current tax is the expected tax payable on the taxable income for the period, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date, and any adjustment to tax payable in respect of previous periods

Deferred tax is recognised in respect of all timing differences that have originated but not reversed at the balance sheet date where transactions or events have occurred at that date that will result in an obligation to pay more, or a right to pay less or to receive more, tax, with the following exceptions

- provision is made for tax on gains arising from the revaluation (and similar fair value adjustments) of fixed assets, and gains on disposal of fixed assets that have been rolled over into replacement assets, only to the extent that, at the balance sheet date, there is a binding agreement to dispose of those assets concerned However, no provision is made where, on the basis of all available evidence at the balance sheet date, it more than likely than not that the taxable gain will be rolled over into replacement assets and charged to tax only where the replacement assets are sold
- provision is made for deferred tax that would arise on remittance of the retained earnings of overseas subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures to the extent that, at the balance sheet date, dividends have been accrued as receivable, and
- deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that the directors consider that it is more likely than not that there will be suitable taxable profits from which the future reversal of the underlying timing differences can be deducted

Deferred tax is measured on an undiscounted basis at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the periods in which timing differences reverse, based on tax rates and laws enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date

d) Investments

Interest in subsidiary undertakings is carried at cost less any impairment identified by the Director

e) Dividends

Dividends are recognised as a liability in the period in which they are declared
