6. GOING CONCERN

In determining the appropriate basis of preparation of the financial statements, the director is required to consider whether the Company can continue in operational existence for at least the next 12 months.

During the period the company made a net loss of £6,462 and, at the balance sheet date, the company's total liabilities exceeded its total assets by £9,646.

Having made requisite enquires, the director is confident that the company has adequate resources to continue its operations for the foreseeable future. Part of the company's liabilities is monies due to Miss B Murrell, shareholder and director of the company, amounting to £11,291. She has confirmed that she will not call on these outstanding monies and will continue her support of the business.

Following a detailed and comprehensive review of the business, the director has no reason or intention to liquidate the company or cease its trading activities over the foreseeable future.

In conclusion, and considering the areas described above, the directors are confident that the Company has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. For these reasons, the directors consider it appropriate they continue to prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis. These financial statements do not include any adjustments that would result from the going concern basis of preparation being inappropriate.
