DIRECTORS RESPONSIBILITIES

Company law requires the Directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the Directors are required to:

- make suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the statements (except for small or medium-sized companies as defined by the Companies Act)
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is appropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclosed with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud or other irregularities.

DIRECTORS BALANCE SHEET STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEAR ENDING 31ST MARCH 2008

The directors:

1. Confirm that for the year ended 31st March 2008 the company was entitled to the exemption under subsection (1) of section 249A of the Companies Act 1985.
2. Confirm that no notice requiring an audit has been deposited under subsection (2) of 249B of the Companies Act 1985
2. Acknowledge their responsibility for:
 - a) Ensuring the company keeps accounting records which comply with section 221
 - b) Preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of the financial year, and of it's profit and loss for the financial year, in accordance with the requirements of section 226, and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the Companies Act 1985 relating to accounts, so far as applicable to the company.
 - c) Preparing the accounts in accordance with the special provisions in part VII of the Companies Act 1985 relating to small companies.

The directors have taken advantage of the exemptions conferred by part III of schedule 8 to the Companies Act 1985 and have done so on the grounds that in their opinion, the company is entitled to the benefit of those exemptions as a small company.

These accounts were prepared by the board of directors on January 23rd 2008, and were signed on their behalf by:
