Notice of a directors' meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the company before, on or after the date on which the meeting is held. 10. PARTICIPATION IN DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

(a) not participating in a directors' meeting; and

(b) would have been entitled to vote if they were participating in it.

20. AUTHORISING CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

20.1 Directors' power to authorise conflicts of interest

The directors may, in accordance with this article, authorise a matter proposed to them which would, if not authorised, involve a breach by a director of his or her duty under s175 Companies Act 2006 to avoid a situation in which he or she has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the company's interests.

20.2 Interpretation

A reference in the articles to a "conflict of interest" includes a conflict of interest and duty and a conflict of duties.

20.3 Authorisation in accordance with Companies Act 2006

An authorisation referred to in article 18.1 is effective only if it is given in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

20.4 Authorisation by written resolution

In the case of an authorisation given by resolution in writing:

- (a) the resolution must be signed by all the directors; and
- (b) the number of directors that sign the resolution (disregarding the director in question and any other director who has a direct or indirect interest in the matter being authorised) must be not less than the number required to form a quorum.

20.5 Directors may prescribe terms of authorisation

The directors may:

- (a) authorise a matter pursuant to article 18.1 on such terms and for such duration, or impose such limits or conditions on it, as they may decide; and
- (b) vary the terms or duration of such an authorisation (including any limits or conditions imposed on it) or revoke it.

20.6 Examples of terms of authorisation

Any terms, limits or conditions imposed by the directors in respect of their authorisation of a director's conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest (whether given pursuant to article 18.1 or otherwise) may provide that:

- (a) if the relevant director has (other than through his or her position as director) information in relation to the relevant matter in respect of which he or she owes a duty of confidentiality to another person, he or she is not obliged to disclose that information to the company or to use or apply it in performing his or her duties as a director;
- (b) the director is to be excluded from discussions in relation to the relevant matter whether at a meeting of the directors or any committee of directors or otherwise;
- (c) the director is not to be given any documents or other information in relation to the relevant matter; and

- (d) the director may or may not vote (or may or may not be counted in the quorum) at a meeting of the directors or any committee of directors in relation to any resolution relating to the relevant matter.

20.7 No infringement of duty

A director does not infringe any duty which he or she owes to the company by virtue of ss171 to 177 Companies Act 2006 if that director acts in accordance with such terms, limits and conditions (if any) as the directors impose in respect of their authorisation of that director's conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest (whether given pursuant to article 18.1 or otherwise).

21. ACCOUNTABILITY OF REMUNERATION AND BENEFITS

21.1 Directors permitted to retain benefits from situational conflicts

A director is not required, by reason of being a director (or because of the fiduciary relationship established by reason of being a director), to account to the company for any remuneration or other benefit which he or she derives from or in connection with a relationship involving a conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest which has been authorised by the directors (whether pursuant to article 18.1 or otherwise) or by the company in general meeting (subject in each case to any terms, limits or conditions attaching to that authorisation).

21.2 Directors permitted to retain benefits from transactional conflicts

If a director has disclosed to the directors the nature and extent of his or her interest (to the extent required by the Companies Act 2006) he or she is not required, by reason of being a director (or because of the fiduciary relationship established by reason of being a director), to account to the company for any remuneration or other benefit which he or she derives from or in connection with:

- (a) being a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the company or in which the company is interested or a body corporate in which the company is interested;
- (b) acting (otherwise than as auditor) alone or through his or her organisation in a professional capacity for the company (and that director or his or her organisation is entitled to remuneration for professional services as if they were not a director); or
- (c) being a director or other officer of, or employed by, or otherwise interested in, the company's subsidiaries or any other body corporate in which the company is interested.

21.3 No breach of statutory duty not to accept benefits from third parties

A director's receipt of any remuneration or other benefit referred to in articles 19.1 or 19.2 does not constitute an infringement of his or her duty under s176 Companies Act 2006.

21.4 Transaction not liable to be avoided

A transaction or arrangement referred to in articles 19.1 or 19.2 is not liable to be avoided on the ground of any remuneration, benefit or interest referred to those articles.

22. MEETINGS AND CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

22.1 Participation of interested directors

If a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, is concerned with an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the company in which a director is interested then:

- (a) provided the director has declared the nature and extent of his or her interest to the other directors to the extent required by the Companies Act 2006; and
- (b) subject to the terms imposed by any authorisation given by the directors (whether pursuant to article 18.1 or otherwise) or by the company in general meeting that director is to be counted as participating in that meeting, or part of a meeting, for quorum purposes and he or she may vote at that meeting or part of a meeting.

22.2 Interpretation

For the purposes of this article:

- (a) an interest of a person who is, for any purpose of the Companies Act 2006, "connected with" (within the meaning of s252 Companies Act 2006) a director is to be treated as an interest of the director; and
- (b) in relation to an alternate director, an interest of his or her appointor is to be treated as an interest of the alternate director without prejudice to any interest which the alternate director has otherwise and without prejudice to his or her ability to vote in relation to that transaction or arrangement on behalf of another appointor who does not have such an interest.

22.3 Chairman's rulings

Subject to article 20.4, if a question arises at a meeting of the directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chairman is to be final and conclusive.

22.4 Questions regarding the chairman

If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) arises in respect of the chairman, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chairman is not counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes.

23. PROPOSING DIRECTORS' WRITTEN RESOLUTIONS

23.1 Proposal by a director

Any director may propose a directors' written resolution.

23.2 Proposal by the company secretary

The company secretary (if any) must propose a directors' written resolution if a director so requests.

23.3 Method of proposing

A directors' written resolution is proposed by giving notice of the proposed resolution to the directors.

23.4 Content of notice

Notice of a proposed directors' written resolution must indicate:

- (a) the proposed resolution; and
- (b) the time by which it is proposed that the directors should adopt it.

23.5 Written notice to each director

Notice of a proposed directors' written resolution must be given in writing to each director.

23.6 Adoption process

Any decision which a person giving notice of a proposed directors' written resolution takes regarding the process of adopting that resolution must be taken reasonably in good faith.

24. ADOPTION OF DIRECTORS' WRITTEN RESOLUTIONS

24.1 When written resolution adopted

24.2 Immateriality of signing time

It is immaterial whether any director signs the resolution before or after the time by which the notice proposed that it should be adopted.

Once a directors' written resolution has been adopted, it must be treated as if it had been a decision taken at a directors' meeting in accordance with the articles.

30. RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

30.1 Rights of alternate directors

An alternate director has the same rights, in relation to a directors' meeting or directors' written resolution, as the alternate's appointor.

30.2 Status and responsibilities of alternate directors

Except as the articles specify otherwise, alternate directors are:

- (a) deemed for all purposes to be directors;
- (b) liable for their own acts and omissions;
- (c) subject to the same restrictions as their appointors;
- (d) not deemed to be agents of or for their appointors; and
- (e) entitled to be indemnified by the company to the same extent as if they were directors.

30.3 Directors' meetings and written resolutions

A person who is an alternate director but not a director:

No alternate may be counted as more than one director for such purposes.

30.4 Remuneration

An alternate director is not entitled to receive any remuneration from the company for serving as an alternate director except for that part of the alternate's appointor's remuneration as the appointor may direct by notice in writing made to the company.

31. TERMINATION OF ALTERNATE DIRECTORSHIP

An alternate director's appointment as an alternate terminates:

- (a) when the alternate's appointor revokes the appointment by notice to the company in writing specifying when it is to terminate;
- (b) on the occurrence in relation to the alternate of any event which, if it occurred in relation to the alternate's appointor, would result in the termination of the appointor's appointment as a director;
- (c) on the death of the alternate's appointor; or
- (d) when the alternate's appointor's appointment as a director terminates.

PART 3 SHARES AND DISTRIBUTIONS

ISSUE OF SHARES

32. ALL SHARES TO BE FULLY PAID UP

32.1 Issue of only fully paid shares

No share is to be issued for less than the aggregate of its nominal value and any premium to be paid to the company in consideration for its issue.

32.2 Exception

Article 29.1 does not apply to shares taken on the formation of the company by the subscribers to the company's memorandum.

33. POWERS TO ISSUE SHARES

33.1 Power, rights and restrictions

Subject to the articles, but without prejudice to the rights attached to any existing share, the company may issue shares with such rights or restrictions as may be decided by ordinary resolution (or, failing such a decision, as the directors, may decide).

33.2 Directors' power to allot shares

All new shares are under the control of the directors who may allot and dispose of or grant options over them to any persons, and on any terms and in any manner, as the directors decide.

33.3 Directors' power to allot shares when only one class of shares s550 Companies Act 2006 applies to the company while it only has one class of shares.

33.4 Exclusion of pre-emption rights ss561 and 562 Companies Act 2006 do not apply to any allotment by the company of equity securities.

33.5 Redeemable shares

The company may issue shares which are to be redeemed, or are liable to be redeemed at the option of the company or the holder. The directors may decide the terms, conditions and manner of redemption of any of those shares and must do so before the shares are allotted.

33.6 Variation of rights

The following events do not constitute a variation of the rights attached to any class or classes of shares unless the terms of issue of that class or those classes expressly provide otherwise or unless the provisions of the articles are not followed:

- (a) the issue of shares of any class in addition to shares of that class previously issued; or
- (b) the creation or issue of shares of a different class to that class (in the case where there is only one class of shares in issue) or to those classes (in any case where there are more than one class of shares in issue) which rank equally with or behind that class or those classes.

INTERESTS IN SHARES

34. COMPANY NOT BOUND BY LESS THAN ABSOLUTE INTERESTS

Except as required by law and even when the company has notice, no person is to be recognised by the company as holding any share upon any trust, and except as otherwise required by law or the articles, the company is not in any way bound by or may not recognise any interest in a share other than the holder's absolute ownership of it and all the rights attaching to it.

35. SHARE CERTIFICATES

35.1 Obligation to issue share certificates

The company must issue each member, free of charge, with one or more certificates in respect of the shares which that member holds.

35.2 Content of certificates

Every certificate must specify:

- (a) in respect of how many shares, of what class, it is issued;
- (b) the nominal value of those shares;
- (c) that the shares are fully paid up; and
- (d) any distinguishing numbers assigned to them.

35.3 Certificate may only cover one class of shares

No certificate may be issued in respect of shares of more than one class.

35.4 Only one certificate for joint holders

If more than one person holds a share, only one certificate may be issued in respect of it.

36.1 Right to a replacement certificate

If a certificate issued in respect of a member's shares is:

- (b) said to be lost, stolen or destroyed, that member is entitled to be issued with a replacement certificate in respect of the same shares.

36.2 Consequential rights and obligations

A member exercising the right to be issued with a replacement certificate:

- (a) may at the same time exercise the right to be issued with a single certificate or separate certificates;
- (b) must return the certificate which is to be replaced to the company if it is damaged or defaced; and
- (c) must comply with such conditions as to evidence, indemnity and the payment of a reasonable fee as the directors decide.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

37. SHARE TRANSFERS

- 1.1 (a) Shares may be transferred by means of an instrument of transfer in any usual form or any other form approved by the directors, which is executed by or on behalf of the transferor and, if any of the shares is nil or partly paid, the transferee.
- (b) The directors may refuse to register the transfer of a share, and, if they do so, the instrument of transfer must be returned to the transferee together with a notice of refusal giving reasons for such refusal as soon as practicable and in any event within two months after the date on which the instrument of transfer was lodged for registration, unless the directors suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent.
- (c) Notwithstanding anything contained in these articles, the directors may not decline to register any transfer of shares in the company, nor may they suspend any registration thereof, where such transfer is:
 - (i) executed by a bank or institution to which such shares have been mortgaged or charged by way of security, or by any nominee of such a bank or institution, pursuant to a power of sale under such security; or

- (ii) executed by a receiver, administrator or manager appointed by or on behalf of any such bank or institution under any such security; or
- (iii) to any such bank or institution, or to any nominee, of such a bank or institution, pursuant to any such security, and a certificate by any officer of such bank or institution that the shares were so charged and the transfer was so executed shall be conclusive evidence of such facts.

38. TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

38.1 Transmittee's title to shares

If title to a share passes to a transmittee, the company may only recognise the transmittee as having any title to that share.

38.2 No release from liabilities

Nothing in the articles releases the estate of a deceased member from any liability in respect of a share solely or jointly held by that member.

38.3 Transmittee's rights

A transmittee who produces such evidence of entitlement to shares as the directors may properly require:

- (a) may, subject to the articles, choose either to become the holder of those shares or to have them transferred to another person; and
- (b) subject to the articles, and pending any transfer of the shares to another person, has the same rights as the holder had.

38.4 When certain rights may be exercised

But transmittees do not have the right to attend or vote at a general meeting, or agree to a proposed written resolution, in respect of shares to which they are entitled, by reason of the holder's death or bankruptcy or otherwise, unless they become the holders of those shares.

38.5 Directors may give notice to transmittee

The directors may:

- (a) at any time give notice requiring a transmittee to choose either to become the holder of a share or to have it transferred to another person; and
- (b) (if the transmittee has not complied with the notice within 90 days starting on the day after it is given or such longer period as the directors may decide) withhold payment of any money payable in respect of the share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

39. EXERCISE OF TRANSMITTEES' RIGHTS

39.1 How transmittee becomes a shareholder

Transmittees who wish to become the holders of shares to which they have become entitled must notify the company in writing of that wish.

39.2 How transmittee transfers a share

If the transmittee wishes to have a share transferred to another person, the transmittee must execute an instrument of transfer in respect of it.

39.3 Effect of transfer executed by a transmittee

Any transfer made or executed under this article is to be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the transmittee has derived rights in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred.

40. TRANSMITTEES BOUND BY PRIOR NOTICES

If a notice is given to a member in respect of shares and a transmittee is entitled to those shares, the transmittee is bound by the notice if it was given to the member before the transmittee's name has been entered in the register of members.

CONSOLIDATION OR DIVISION OF SHARES

41. SHARES RESULTING FROM A SUB-DIVISION

42.3 Distribution to a charity

Where any holder's entitlement to a portion of the proceeds of sale amounts to less than a minimum figure decided by the directors, that member's portion may be distributed to an organisation which is a charity for the purposes of the law of England and Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland.

42.4 Transferee's obligations

The person to whom the shares are transferred is not obliged to ensure that any purchase money is received by the person entitled to the relevant fractions.

43.1 Power to declare or pay dividends

The Company may by special resolution declare dividends, and the directors may decide to pay interim dividends.

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

44. AUTHORITY TO CAPITALISE AND APPROPRIATION OF CAPITALISED SUMS

44.1 Directors' capitalisation and appropriation powers

Subject to the articles, the directors may, if they are so authorised by an ordinary resolution decide to capitalise any profits of the company (whether or not they are available for distribution), or any sum standing to the credit of the company's share premium account or capital redemption reserve.

45.5 Attendance when at different places

Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them.

50.8 A proxy's obligations to vote

The company is entitled to assume without enquiry that a proxy has complied with any obligation to vote in accordance with instructions given by the member by whom the proxy is appointed. 51. ERRORS AND DISPUTES

51.1 Voting objections

No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.

Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.

54.4 Ancillary rights of proxies

Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:

- (a) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting; and
- (b) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

55. DELIVERY OF PROXY NOTICES

- (a) in accordance with article 53.3; or
- (b) at the meeting at which the poll was demanded to the chairman, secretary (if any) or any director.

55.6 Calculating periods of time

In calculating the periods mentioned in article 53.3 and 53.4, no account is to be taken of any part of a day that is not a working day, unless the directors decide otherwise in relation to a specific general meeting.
