Directors' Responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs and of the profit or loss for that year. In preparing these accounts the directors are required to:

Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;

Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;

Prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose, with reasonable accuracy at any time, the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

ACCOUNTANTS' REPORT TO THE DIRECTORS
ON THE UNAUDITED ACCOUNTS OF APTON COURT (MANAGEMENT) COMPANY LIMITED

As described on the balance sheet you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts for the year ended 31st December 2001, set out on pages 4 to 7, and you consider that the company is exempt from an audit and a report under Section 249A(1) of the Companies Act 1985. In accordance with your instructions, we have compiled these unaudited accounts in order to assist you to fulfil your statutory responsibilities, from the accounting records and information and explanations supplied to us.

We have also examined the underlying records and obtained all the information and explanations which we considered necessary to form an opinion on these accounts.

In our opinion the accounts give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs as at 31st December 2001 and of its surplus for the year then ended and have been properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985.
