Remuneration of Directors
(73) The directors must not be paid any remuneration unless it is authorised by article (8).

Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.

(f) Questions arising at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes.

(g) In the case of an equality of votes, the person who is chairing the meeting shall have a second or casting vote provided that he or she is not prohibited from participating in the decision making process in accordance with article (82).

(j) A director is able to exercise the right to speak at a meeting of the directors when that director is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting.

(k) In determining attendance at a meeting of the directors, it is immaterial whether any two or more directors attending it are in the same place as each other.

Quorum for directors’ meetings

(75) No decision may be made by a meeting of the directors unless a quorum is present at the time the decision is purported to be made. ‘Present’ includes being present by suitable electronic means agreed by the directors in which a participant or participants may communicate with all the other participants.

(a) The quorum shall be two, or such larger number as may be decided from time to time by the directors.

(b) A director shall not be counted in the quorum present when any decision is made about a matter upon which that director is not entitled to vote.

(76) If the number of director is less than the number fixed as the quorum, the continuing directors or director may act only for the purpose of filling vacancies or of calling a general meeting.

Chairperson

(77) The chairperson elected in accordance with article (71) shall chair all meetings of the directors but if no such chairperson is elected, or if at any meeting the chairperson is not present within ten minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, the directors present may choose one of their number to chair that meeting.

Directors’ written resolutions

(78) A resolution in writing or in electronic form agreed by a simple majority of all the directors entitled to receive notice of a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors and to vote upon the resolution shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the directors or (as the case my be) a committee of directors duly convened and held provided that:
(a) a copy of the resolution is sent or submitted to all the directors eligible to vote; and

(b) a simple majority of directors has signified its agreement to the resolution in an authenticated document or documents which are received at the registered office within the period of 28 days beginning with the circulation date.

(79) The resolution in writing may comprise several documents containing the text of the resolution in like form to each of which one or more directors has signified their agreement.

Delegation

(80) (a) The directors may delegate any of their powers or functions to any person or committee but the terms of any delegation must be recorded in the minute book. The directors have the power to revoke or alter any such delegation in whole or in part, or alter its terms and conditions.

(b) The resolution making the delegation must specify those who shall serve or be asked to serve on the committee (although the resolution may allow the committee to make co-options up to a specified number).

(c) Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors.

(d) The Directors may authorise further delegation of the relevant powers, functions, implementation of decisions or day to day management by any committee to whom they are delegated to such an extent as they think fit.

(e) The composition of any committee shall be entirely in the discretion of the Directors and may include such of their number (if any) as the resolution may specify.

(81) The directors may impose conditions when delegating, including the conditions that:

(a) the relevant powers are to be exercised exclusively by the committee to whom they delegate;

(b) no expenditure may be incurred on behalf of the Company except in accordance with a budget previously agreed with the directors.

(c) all acts and proceedings of any committees must be fully and promptly reported to the directors and any resolution passed or decision taken by any committee must be reported promptly to the Directors and every committee must appoint a secretary for that purpose.

Declaration of directors’ interests

(82) The Directors shall cause a register of Directors’ interests to be kept. A director must declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the Company which has not previously been declared. A director must absent himself or herself from any discussions of the directors in which it is possible that a conflict will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the Company and any personal interest (including but not limited to any personal financial interest).

Conflicts of interests

(83) If a conflict of interests arises for a director because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person and the conflict is not authorised by virtue of any other provision in the articles, the unconflicted directors may authorise such a conflict of interests where the following conditions apply:

(a) the conflicted director is absent from the part of the meeting at which there is discussion of any arrangement or transaction affecting that other organisation or person;

(b) the conflicted director does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when considering whether a quorum of directors is present at the meeting; and

(c) the unconflicted directors consider it is in the interests of the Company to authorise the conflict of interests in the circumstances applying.

(d) in authorising a conflict of interest, the Directors can decide the manner in which the conflict of interest may be dealt with and, for the avoidance of doubt, they can decide that the Director with a conflict of interest can participate in a vote on the matter and can be counted in the quorum;

(e) the decision to authorise a conflict of interest can impose such terms as the Directors think fit and is subject always to their right to vary or terminate the authorisation; and

(f) nothing in this Article shall have the effect of allowing the Directors to authorise a benefit that is not permitted in accordance with Article 8.

(84) In article (83), a conflict of interests arising because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person only refers to such a conflict which does not involve a direct or indirect benefit of any nature to a director or to a connected person.
(b) When a Director has a conflict of Interest which he or she has declared to the Directors, he or she shall not be in breach of his or her duties to the Company by withholding confidential information from the Company if to disclose it would result in a breach of any other duty or obligation of confidence owed by him or her.

Validity of directors' decisions

(85) Subject to article (86), all acts done by a meeting of directors, or of a committee of directors, shall be valid notwithstanding the participation in any vote of a director:

(a) who was disqualified from holding office;

(b) who had previously retired or who had been obliged by the articles to vacate office;

(c) who was not entitled to vote on the matter, whether by reason of a conflict of interests or otherwise;

if without:

(d) the vote of that director; and

(e) that director being counted in the quorum;

the decision has been made by a majority of the directors at a quorate meeting.

(86) Article (85) does not permit a director or connected person to keep any benefit that may be conferred upon him or her by a resolution of the directors or of a committee of directors if, but for article (85), the resolution would have been void, or if the director has not complied with article (82).

Seal

(87) If the Company has a seal it must only be used by the authority of the directors or of a committee of directors authorised by the directors. The directors may determine who shall sign any instrument to which the seal is affixed and unless so determined it shall be signed by a director and by the secretary or by a second director.
