    - (v) work to free individuals, families and businesses alike from excessive government interference in the conduct of their affairs and seek to return authority and responsible autonomy to all levels of local government, whether borough, city or district, whilst rejecting the idea of an extra layer of government in the form of regional assemblies, which would alienate voters by distancing them further from government, and undermine the principle democratically accountable local government;

- (vi) work together with other democratic parties and organisations for particular purposes consistent with its aims.
- (b) to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire real or personal property and rights or privileges.
- (c) to sell, let, mortgage, dispose of or turn to account all or any of the property or assets of the Company.
- (d) to undertake and execute any charitable trusts which may lawfully be undertaken by the Company.
- (e) to borrow or raise money on such terms and on such security as may be thought fit.
- (f) to invest the monies of the Company not immediately required for its purposes in or upon such investments, securities or property as may be thought fit, subject nevertheless to such conditions (if any) and such consents (if any) as may for the time being be imposed or required by law and subject also as hereinafter provided.
- (g) to establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of any associations or institutions and to subscribe or guarantee money for purposes connected to the objects of the Company.
- (h) to do all such other things as are incidental to the attainment of furtherance of the said objects or any of them.

And it is hereby declared that, save as otherwise expressly provided, each of the paragraphs of this clause shall be regarded as specifying separate and independent objects and accordingly shall not be in anywise limited by reference to or inference from any other paragraph shall, save as aforesaid, be carried out in as full and ample a manner and constructed in as wide a sense as if each of the paragraphs defined the objects of a separate and distinct company.

The income and property of the Company shall be applied solely towards the promotion of its objects as set forth in this Memorandum of Association and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by dividend, bonus or otherwise howsoever by way of profit, to members of the Company provided that nothing herein shall prevent any payment in good faith by the Company:-

- (a) of reasonable and proper remuneration to any member, director, officer or servant of the Company for any services rendered to the Company;
  - (b) the payment of interest at a rate of not less than two per cent under the base rate for the time being of the Company's banker or three per cent whichever is the greater;
  - (c) to any Director of out-of-pocket expenses;
  - (d) to a company of which a member of the Company or of its council of management or governing body may be a member holding not more than one hundredth part of the capital of such company;
  - (e) of reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let by any member of the Company or any of the Company's Directors.
5. The liability of the members is limited.
  6. Every member of the Company undertakes to contribute such amounts as may be required (not exceeding £1) to the assets of the Company if it should be wound up while he is a member or within one year after he ceases to be a member, for payment of the Company's debts and liabilities contracted before he ceases to be a member, and of its costs, charges and expenses of winding up, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves.
  7. If, upon the winding up of or dissolution of the Company, there remains after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the Company, but shall be given or transferred to some other institution or institutions, having objects similar to the objects of the Company, and which shall prohibit the distribution of its or their income and property to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the Company under or by virtue of Clause 4 hereof, such institutions to be determined by the members of the Company at or before the time of dissolution, and if and so far as effect cannot be given to such provision then to some charitable object.

The notice shall be given to all the members and to the Directors and, if the Company has an Auditor at the time the notice is despatched, to any such Auditors.

9. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of such notice by, any person entitled to receive notice thereof shall not invalidate any resolution passed, or proceeding had, at any meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

10. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an extraordinary general meeting, and all that is transacted at an annual general meeting shall also be deemed special, with the exception, unless an appropriate elective resolution is in force, of the consideration of the income and expenditure account and balance sheet, and the reports of the Board and, in the event that the Company requires and has appointed an Auditor, of the Auditors, the election of members of the Board in the place of those retiring, and the appointment of, and the fixing of the remuneration of, the Auditors.

Save as herein otherwise provided two members personally present shall be a quorum. For so long as the Company has only a sole Member, that Member shall constitute a quorum if present in person or by proxy or, if that Member is a corporation, by a duly authorised representative.

12. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the holding of a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, or at such other place as the Board may determine.

13. The Chairman (if any) of the Board shall preside as Chairman at every general meeting, but if there be no such Chairman, or if at any meeting he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, or shall be unwilling to preside, the members present shall choose some Director, or if no such member be present, or if all the members of the council present decline to take the chair, they shall choose some member of the Company who shall be present to preside.

14. The Chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time, and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than business which might have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. Whenever a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same manner as of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, the members shall not be entitled to any notice of an adjournment, or of the business to be transacted at any adjourned meeting.
15. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
16. Subject to the provisions of Article 20, if a poll be demanded in manner aforesaid, it shall be taken at such time and place, and in such manner, as the Chairman of the meeting shall direct, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
17. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the Meeting shall be entitled to a second casting vote.
18. The demand of a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.
19. Subject to the provisions of the Act a resolution in writing signed by all the members for the time being entitled to receive notice of and to attend and vote at general meetings (or being corporations by their duly authorised representatives) shall be as valid and effective as if the same had been passed at a general meeting of the Company duly convened and held.

No instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiration of twelve months from the date of its execution.
26. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, provided that no intimation in writing of the death, insanity or revocations as aforesaid shall have been received at the Office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used.
