Statement of directors' responsibilities in respect of the directors' report and the financial

The directors are responsible for preparing the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and UK generally accepted accounting principles.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial period which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to:

select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;

make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;

state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;

prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis, unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Notes to the financial statements

1 Principal accounting policies

These financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention, as modified by the revaluation of certain fixed assets, and in accordance with UK generally accepted accounting principles. A summary of the more significant accounting policies is set out below.

Investments

Limited partnerships are stated at fair value, being the value of the partner's capital account. Fair value adjustments are equal to the company's share of the limited partnership profits or losses in the year.

Foreign currencies

Transactions denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the exchange rate ruling on the date of the transaction. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the exchange rate ruling on the balance sheet date. Exchange gains or losses are taken to the profit and loss account.

Bank interest received

Bank interest is brought into account when it is received by the company.

Expenses

Expenses are accounted for in the period to which they relate.

Cash flow statement

The company is exempt from producing a cash flow statement on the grounds that it is a small sized company as defined in Financial Reporting Standard 1.

Continued support

The directors have received confirmation from the shareholders of their continued financial support for the foreseeable future and for at least 12 months from the date of signature of these financial statements.
