Trustees (continued)
Trustees are appointed, according to need, as additional Trustees at meetings of the Trustees after consideration of their experience and the benefit they may be able to bring to the centre. They are subject to re-election at Annual General Meetings in accordance with Articles 30 to 38.

The Trustees meet formally approximately every three months. At their meetings, operational and fund-raising objectives are set and performance is monitored. The responsibility for the day-to-day operations of the Charity is in the hands of Robert Fleming.

Objects, aims and activities
The company's Memorandum of Association states "The Charity's objects are to promote the advancement of the education of the public and in particular but not so as to limit the generality of the foregoing to promote the advancement of public education in the study of and research into war in the Twentieth Century with the main emphasis on the Second World War including the Anglo-American relationship and the parallel Dominion, Colonial and European experiences, by the rescue through collection and interview of the evidence of individual experience and the dissemination of the useful results of such research".

The Centre is a national research and study centre dedicated to Second World War personal experience, accessible to a wide public, including researchers, historians, interested members of the general public, veterans and school children.

Unlike other museums and archives, the Centre is unique in that it focuses exclusively on the Second World War and on the experiences of all individuals in the circumstances of war 1939-1945, whether civilian or military and is international in scope encompassing the experiences of members of the Axis forces, as well as US and Dominion personnel in the Allied Forces.

The Centre accepts all materials relating to personal experience, including books and three-dimensional objects of a personal nature.

The Trustees recognise the value and importance of collecting first hand material as indispensable source documents for future research and study. The archive of the Centre is being assembled in a spirit both of education and commemoration. Many elderly in the community have personal experience and knowledge of the events chronicled by the Centre and there is increasing urgency to maximise the collection before these personal reminiscences are lost forever.

In matters of material collected, and of recruiting staff and volunteers, the Centre holds strictly to the principles of equal opportunity for all, regardless of age, disability, gender or ethnic origin. The facilities will be available to schools and educational institutions and also to those who might not otherwise have access to documentary records. The Centre is concerned to help people in the community from later generations to understand the consequences of war, its realities, its moral evils, and the moral strengths which it can bring out in the people involved.
Achievements and performance
The Centre has created a very significant collection of individuals' papers, interviews and artefacts. All material will be catalogued on database using a detailed cross-referencing system to assist researchers. It is planned that the catalogue will eventually be globally accessible via the Internet.

The Charity's archives now comprise in excess of 8,700 individual case studies.

During the year, the Trustees continued their efforts to raise funds for the Centre and we are grateful to the many charitable institutions which, and individuals who, have supported our work. We are very grateful to Trailfinders for sponsoring the Centre's journal, and to Serco Defence, Science and Technology for sponsoring the Autumn Lecture Series.

In the year ended 31 December 2017, donations and similar income received amounted to £36,696 compared with expenditure of £36,686. Expenditure included costs of employing the Centre's staff and of the Charity's offices.

At 31 December 2017, the Charity had unrestricted income funds of £43,919 and restricted income funds of £2,600. These reserves are available to meet future operations' expense.

In the light of the uncertain nature of gratuitous donation income and the long term nature of the Centre's vision and objectives, it is the policy of the Trustees to accumulate free reserves to the maximum degree possible for the foreseeable future.

In the year 2017, the activity of the rescuing and the cataloguing of personal wartime experiences continued. Another two editions of the Centre's journal "Everyone's War" were published. These serve to inform readers of the activities and achievements of, and developments in, the Centre, as well as containing articles based on the stories of peoples' experiences during the Second World War.

In 2017, the Centre will continue to increase the material within the archive and to develop further the means of making it available for educational, research and other purposes.
Financial statements and financial position
Income during the year comprised donations or income of a similar nature; expenditure was principally payroll and office costs as set out in note 3 to the Financial Statements. The funds at the end of the period comprised almost wholly of liquid resources.

The Trustees continue to regard the current financial position as being satisfactory.

Trustees' responsibilities in relation to the financial statements
The Trustees are responsible for preparing a trustees' annual report and financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Company law requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of its incoming resources and application of resources, including income and expenditure, for that period. In preparing the financial statements, the Trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP (FRS 102);
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The Trustees are satisfied that the internal controls operated to safeguard the Charity's assets are appropriate to the nature and scale of the Charity's operations.

The Trustees have assessed risks affecting the Centre and believe that safeguards against significant risks are in place as far as is practical.

Investment powers
Under its Memorandum of Association and in furtherance of the Charity's objects but not otherwise, the Charity may exercise powers to invest the moneys of the Charity not immediately required for the furtherance of the Charity's objects in or upon such investments, securities or property as may be thought fit to the intent that the Trustees shall have the same full unrestricted powers of investing in all respects as if they were beneficially absolute owners, subject nevertheless to such conditions (if any) and such consents (if any) as may for the time being be imposed or required by law.

Basis of Report
This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part VII of the Companies Act 1985 relating to small companies and the Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice (revised 2005).

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER’S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF THE SECOND WORLD WAR EXPERIENCE CENTRE

I report on the financial statements of Second World War Experience Centre (Limited by Guarantee) for the year ended 31 December 2017 which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities, the Balance Sheet and the related notes.

This report is made solely to the charity’s members, as a body. My examination has been undertaken so that I might state to the charity’s members those matters I am required to state to them in an independent examiners report and for no other purpose.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner
The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements. The charity’s trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (“the Charities Act”) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:
- examine the financial statements under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner’s statement
My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the financial statements presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the financial statements, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the financial statements present a ‘true and fair’ view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner’s statement
In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
   - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
   - to prepare financial statements which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the financial statements to be reached.

For the year ended 31 December 2017, the company was entitled to the exemption from the requirement to have an audit under the provisions of s477, Companies Act 2006. No notice has been deposited with the company under s476 of that Act requiring an audit to be carried out.

In preparing these financial statements, the Trustees acknowledge their responsibilities for (i) ensuring that the company keep accounting records which comply with Section 396 of the Companies Act 2006, and (ii) preparing financial statements which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of the financial period and of its profit or loss for the financial period in accordance with the requirements of this Act relating to financial statements, so far as applicable to the company.

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small companies and with the Charities Statement of Recommended Practice (FRS 102).

The notes on pages 10 to 14 form an integral part of these financial statements
1. Accounting Policies
   The principal accounting policies adopted, judgements and key sources of estimation uncertainty in the preparation of the financial statements are as follows:

   1.1 Basis of preparation
   The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS
   102) (effective 1 January 2015) - (Charities SORP (FRS 102), the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) and the Companies Act 2006.

   The company meets the definition of a public benefit entity under FRS 102. Assets and liabilities are initially recognised at historical cost or transaction value.

   After reviewing the company’s forecasts and projections, the trustees have a reasonable expectation that the company has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future.
   The company therefore continues to adopt the going concern basis in preparing its financial statements.

   There are no significant judgements made in the process of applying the entity’s accounting policies.

   1.2 Donations
   Voluntary income is received by way of donations, covenants and gifts and is included in full in the Statement of Financial Activities when receivable. Donated accountancy services are included in both income and expenditure, based on the estimated cost of the services to the firm which supplies them.

   1.3 Grants
   Grants, including grants for the purchase of fixed assets, are recognised in full in the Statement of Financial Activities in the year in which they are receivable.

   1.4 Other income
   Incoming resources from the resource pack sales and from investments is included when receivable.

   1.5 Resources expended
   Resources expended are recognised in the period in which they are incurred. Resources expended include attributable VAT which cannot be recovered. Resources expended are allocated to the particular activity where the cost relates directly to that activity. Overhead expenditure has been allocated between the cost centres of Resources Expended in accordance with the usage of the assets or the benefit of the expenditure concerned.

   1.6 Tangible fixed assets and depreciation Tangible fixed assets with an individual cost of above £250 are recognised as capital items. They are stated at cost less depreciation. Depreciation is provided at 33.3% on the reducing balance; a rate calculated to write off the cost less estimated residual value of each asset over its expected useful life.

   1.7 Funds structure
   Donations received which are conditional upon their being used for specific purposes are treated as Restricted income funds and amounts unexpended at the year end are shown separately under Accumulated funds in the Balance Sheet.

   1.8 Governance costs
   Governance costs are those incurred by the charity in meeting its statutory obligations.
1.9 Preparation of the financial statements on a going concern basis
After reviewing forecasts and projections the Trustees have a reasonable expectation that the company has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. The company therefore continues to adopt the going concern basis in preparing its financial statements.

1.10 Reconciliation with previous Generally Accepted Accounting Practice
In preparing the financial statements, the trustees have considered whether in applying the accounting policies required by FRS 102 and the Charities SORP FRS 102 the restatement of comparative items was required. The trustees have reviewed the transactions and have determined that no amendment to the comparative figures is required.
2 Donated services

Donated services in each of 2017 and 2016 amounted to £500.
