- 1 The original instrument (if any) creating or evidencing the charge, together with these prescribed particulars correctly completed must be delivered to the Registrar of Companies within 21 days after the date of creation of the charge (section 395). If the property is situated and the charge was created outside the United Kingdom delivery to the Registrar must be effected within 21 days after the date on which the instrument could in due course of post, and if dispatched with due diligence, have been received in the United Kingdom (section 398). A copy of the instrument creating the charge will be accepted where the property charged is situated and the charge was created outside the United Kingdom (section 398) and in such cases the copy must be verified to be a correct copy either by the company or by the person who has delivered or sent the copy to the registrar. The verification must be signed by or on behalf of the person giving the verification and where this is given by a body corporate it must be signed by an officer of that body. A verified copy will also be accepted where section 398(4) applies (property situate in Scotland or Northern Ireland) and Form No. 398 is submitted.
- 2 A description of the instrument, eg "Trust Deed", "Debenture", "Mortgage", or "Legal charge", etc, as the case may be, should be given.
- 3 In this section there should be inserted the amount or rate per cent. of the commission, allowance or discount (if any) paid or made either directly or indirectly by the company to any person in consideration of his:
  - (a) subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, or
  - (b) procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolute or conditional,for any of the debentures included in this return. The rate of interest payable under the terms of the debentures should not be entered.
- 4 If any of the spaces in this form provide insufficient space the particulars must be entered on the prescribed continuation sheet.
- 5 Cheques and Postal Orders are to be made payable to Companies House.

Clause 5 of the Security and Trust Deed provides that if the company breaches the covenant contained in Clause 4(d) thereof or any execution or other process for enforcing a judgment or order made against the company is issued against the charged assets or any part thereof (including any attempt by a creditor of the company to obtain a garnishee order in relation to any book or other debts comprised therein) the charge shall automatically without notice be converted into a specific charge over such part or parts of the charged assets thereof respectively and shall become enforceable.

The Security and Trust Deed contains a covenant that the company shall not without the prior consent in writing of Lloyd's (and then only to the extent that such consent permits and in accordance with any conditions attached thereto) sell or transfer the whole or (except in the ordinary course of insurance broking business) any part of the charged assets or deal with any book or other debts comprised therein for money except in the ordinary course of insurance broking business (which expression shall not include the selling, factoring or discounting by the company of such debts to any person).

Clause 4(d) of the Security and Trust Deed referred to above provides that except as provided by the byelaw the company shall not without the prior consent in writing of Lloyd's (and then only to the extent that such consent permits and in accordance with any conditions attached there) grant or attempt to grant any charge encumbrance or other security interest whatsoever over the charged assets or any part thereof.
