PART I
INTERPRETATION AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

Defined terms
1. In the articles, unless the context requires otherwise—“articles” means the company’s articles of association,
   “bankruptcy” includes individual insolvency proceedings in a jurisdiction other than England and Wales or Northern Ireland which have an effect similar to that of bankruptcy,
   “chairman” has the meaning given in article 12;
   “chairman of the meeting” has the meaning given in article 39,
   “Companies Acts” means the Companies Acts (as defined in section 2 of the Companies Act 2006), in so far as they apply to the company, “director” means a director of the company, and includes any person occupying the position of director, by whatever name called,
   “distribution recipient” has the meaning given in article 31,
   “document” includes, unless otherwise specified, any document sent or supplied in electronic form,
   “electronic form” has the meaning given in section 1168 of the Companies Act 2006,
   “fully paid” in relation to a share, means that the nominal value and any premium to be paid to the company in respect of that share have been paid to the company,
   “hard copy form” has the meaning given in section 1168 of the Companies Act 2006,
   “holder” in relation to shares means the person whose name is entered in the register of members as the holder of the shares,
   “instrument” means a document in hard copy form,
   “ordinary resolution” has the meaning given in section 282 of the Companies Act 2006,
   “paid” means paid or credited as paid,
   “participate”, in relation to a directors’ meeting, has the meaning given in article 10,
   “proxy notice” has the meaning given in article 45, “shareholder” means a person who is the holder of a share,
"shares" means shares in the company,
"special resolution" has the meaning given in section 283 of the Companies Act 2006;
"subsidiary" has the meaning given in section 1159 of the Companies Act 2006,
"transmittee" means a person entitled to a share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of a shareholder or otherwise by operation of law, and "writing" means the representation or reproduction of words, symbols or other information in a visible form by any method or combination of methods, whether sent or supplied in electronic form or otherwise.

Unless the context otherwise requires, other words or expressions contained in these articles bear the same meaning as in the Companies Act 2006 as in force on the date when these articles become binding on the company.

Liability of members

2. The liability of the members is limited to the amount, if any, unpaid on the shares held by them

PART 2
DIRECTORS
DIRECTORS’ POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Directors’ general authority

3. Subject to the articles, the directors are responsible for the management of the company’s business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the company

Shareholders’ reserve power

4.—(1) The shareholders may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action
    (2) No such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution.

Directors may delegate

5.—(1) Subject to the articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the articles—
    (a) to such person or committee,
    (b) by such means (including by power of attorney),
    (c) to such an extent;
(d) in relation to such matters or territories, and
(e) on such terms and conditions, as they think fit.

(2) If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors’ powers by any person to whom they are delegated
(3) The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions

Committees

6.—(1) Committees to which the directors delegate any of their powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the articles which govern the taking of decisions by directors
(2) The directors may make rules of procedure for all or any committees, which prevail over rules derived from the articles if they are not consistent with them.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

Directors to take decisions collectively

7.—(1) The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with article 8.
(2) If—
(a) the company only has one director, and
(b) no provision of the articles requires it to have more than one director, the general rule does not apply, and the director may take decisions without regard to any of the provisions of the articles relating to directors’ decision-making

Unanimous decisions

8.—(1) A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this article when all eligible directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter
(2) Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each eligible director or to which each eligible director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing
(3) References in this article to eligible directors are to directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter had it been proposed as a resolution at a directors’ meeting
(4) A decision may not be taken in accordance with this article if the eligible directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting

Calling a directors’ meeting

9.—(1) Any director may call a directors’ meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the directors or by authorising the company secretary (if any) to give such notice.
(2) Notice of any directors’ meeting must indicate—
(a) its proposed date and time,
(b) where it is to take place, and
(c) If it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.

(3) Notice of a directors’ meeting must be given to each director, but need not be in writing.

(4) Notice of a directors’ meeting need not be given to directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the company not more than 7 days after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.

Participation in directors’ meetings

10.—(1) Subject to the articles, directors participate in a directors’ meeting, or part of a directors’ meeting, when—

(a) the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the articles, and

(b) they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.

(2) In determining whether directors are participating in a directors’ meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is or how they communicate with each other.

(3) If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

Quorum for directors’ meetings

11.—(1) At a directors’ meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.

(2) The quorum for directors’ meetings may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the directors, but it must never be less than two, and unless otherwise fixed, it is two.

(3) If the total number of directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the directors must not take any decision other than a decision—

(a) to appoint further directors, or

(b) to call a general meeting so as to enable the shareholders to appoint further directors.

Chairing of directors’ meetings

12.—(1) The directors may appoint a director to chair their meetings.

(2) The person so appointed for the time being is known as the chairman.

(3) The directors may terminate the chairman’s appointment at any time.

(4) If the chairman is not participating in a directors’ meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it.

Casting vote

13.—(1) If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal are equal, the chairman or other director chairing the meeting has a casting vote.
(2) But this does not apply if, in accordance with the articles, the chairman or other director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes

Conflicts of interest

14.—(1) If a proposed decision of the directors is concerned with an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the company in which a director is interested, that director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes
(2) But if paragraph (3) applies, a director who is interested in an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the company is to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum and voting purposes
(3) This paragraph applies when—
(a) the company by ordinary resolution disappplies the provision of the articles which would otherwise prevent a director from being counted as participating in the decision-making process,
(b) the director’s interest cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest, or
(c) the director’s conflict of interest arises from a permitted cause
(4) For the purposes of this article, the following are permitted causes—
(a) a guarantee given, or to be given, by or to a director in respect of an obligation incurred by or on behalf of the company or any of its subsidiary, subscription, or an agreement to subscribe, for shares or other securities of the company or any of its subsidiary, or to underwrite, sub-underwrite, or guarantee subscription for any such shares or securities, and
(c) arrangements pursuant to which benefits are made available to employees and directors or former employees and directors of the company or any of its subsidiary which do not provide special benefits for directors or former directors
(5) For the purposes of this article, references to proposed decisions and decision-making processes include any directors’ meeting or part of a directors’ meeting.
(6) Subject to paragraph (7), if a question arises at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chairman is to be final and conclusive
(7) If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chairman, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chairman is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes

Records of decisions to be kept

15. The directors must ensure that the company keeps a record, in writing, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the directors
Directors' discretion to make further rules

16. Subject to the articles, the directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to directors.

APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

Methods of appointing directors

17.—(1) Any person who is willing to act as a director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a director—

   (a) by ordinary resolution, or
   (b) by a decision of the directors

(2) In any case where, as a result of death, the company has no shareholders and no directors, the personal representatives of the last shareholder to have died have the right, by notice in writing, to appoint a person to be a director

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (2), where 2 or more shareholders die in circumstances rendering it uncertain who was the last to die, a younger shareholder is deemed to have survived an older shareholder

Termination of director's appointment

18. A person ceases to be a director as soon as—

   (a) that person ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Act 2006 or is prohibited from being a director by law,
   (b) a bankruptcy order is made against that person,
   (c) a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts,
   (d) a registered medical practitioner who is treating that person gives a written opinion to the company stating that that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a director and may remain so for more than three months,
   (e) [paragraph omitted pursuant to The Mental Health (Discrimination) Act 2013]
   (f) notification is received by the company from the director that the director is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms

Directors' remuneration

19.—(1) Directors may undertake any services for the company that the directors decide

(2) Directors are entitled to such remuneration as the directors determine—

   (a) for their services to the company as directors, and
   (b) for any other service which they undertake for the company

(3) Subject to the articles, a director's remuneration may—

   (a) take any form, and
(b) include any arrangements in connection with the payment of a pension, allowance or gratuity, or any death, sickness or disability benefits, to or in respect of that director

(4) Unless the directors decide otherwise, directors’ remuneration accrues from day to day

(5) Unless the directors decide otherwise, directors are not accountable to the company for any remuneration which they receive as directors or other officers or employees of the company’s subsidiaries or of any other body corporate in which the company is interested

Directors’ expenses

20. The company may pay any reasonable expenses which the directors properly incur in connection with their attendance at—
(a) meetings of directors or committees of directors,
(b) general meetings, or
(c) separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares or of debentures of the company, or otherwise in connection with the exercise of their powers and the discharge of their responsibilities in relation to the company

SHARES AND DISTRIBUTIONS SHARES

Powers to issue different classes of share

21.—(1) Subject to the articles, but without prejudice to the rights attached to any existing share, the company may issue shares with such rights or restrictions as may be determined by ordinary resolution

(2) The company may issue shares which are to be redeemed, or are liable to be redeemed at the option of the company or the holder, and the directors may determine the terms, conditions and manner of redemption of any such shares.

Share rights

22. The company has the following share classes

- A ordinary shares of £0.01 each (“A Shares”), and
- B ordinary shares of £0.01 each (“B shares”)

The A Shares and B Shares shall have one vote per share. The A Shares and the B Shares shall be eligible to receive dividends provided that the directors may declare different dividends on the two share classes. The shares shall rank pari passu in all other respects save as otherwise provided for in the Articles.

Company not bound by less than absolute interests
23. Except as required by law, no person is to be recognised by the company as holding any share upon any trust, and except as otherwise required by law or the articles, the company is not in any way to be bound by or recognise any interest in a share other than the holder's absolute ownership of it and all the rights attaching to it.

Share certificates

24.—(1) The company must issue each shareholder, free of charge, with one or more certificates in respect of the shares which that shareholder holds.
(2) Every certificate must specify—
   (a) in respect of how many shares, of what class, it is issued,
   (b) the nominal value of those shares,
   (c) if the shares are fully paid up, and
   (d) any distinguishing numbers assigned to them.
(3) No certificate may be issued in respect of shares of more than one class.
(4) If more than one person holds a share, only one certificate may be issued in respect of it.
(5) Certificates must—
   (a) have affixed to them the company’s common seal, or
   (b) be otherwise executed in accordance with the Companies Acts.

Replacement share certificates

25.—(1) If a certificate issued in respect of a shareholder’s shares is—
   (a) damaged or defaced, or
   (b) said to be lost, stolen or destroyed, that shareholder is entitled to be issued with a replacement certificate in respect of the same shares.
   (2) A shareholder exercising the right to be issued with such a replacement certificate—
   (a) may at the same time exercise the right to be issued with a single certificate or separate certificates,
   (b) must return the certificate which is to be replaced to the company if it is damaged or defaced, and
   (c) must comply with such conditions as to evidence, indemnity and the payment of a reasonable fee as the directors decide.

25A. —Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act 2006 (the “Act”) and to any rights for the time being attached to any shares, the Company may purchase or enter into a contract under which it will or may purchase any of its own shares.

Share transfers

26.—(1) Shares may be transferred by means of an instrument of transfer in any usual form or any other form approved by the directors, which is executed by or on behalf of the transferor.
(2) No fee may be charged for registering any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any share.
(3) The company may retain any instrument of transfer which is registered.
(4) The transferor remains the holder of a share until the transferee’s name is entered in the register of members as holder of it
(5) The directors may in their absolute discretion, decline to register any transfer of any shares, whether or not it is a fully paid share. The directors shall notify the transferee of any refusal under this article and the reasons for refusal within two months of the date on when the transfer was lodged with the Company

Mandatory share transfers

26A1. Any holder of shares who has acquired those shares through an employees’ share scheme within the meaning of section 1166 of the Companies Act 2006 (a “Scheme”) or under any share subscription or acquisition agreement or deed, or upon exercise of any share option or other share plan to which this article is stated to apply to in such document (together the “Plans”) approved or adopted by the Company or any other company of which it has control and who wishes to sell or transfer any or all of such shares (the “Vendor”) shall immediately notify the Company in writing (a “Transfer Notice”) stating the number of shares that he wishes to sell and the price at which they are to be offered (the “Offer Price”). The Offer Price will be agreed between the Vendor and the Company as the fair price between willing buyer and willing seller, taking account of the relationship of the number of shares to be sold to the whole issued share capital. If the Offer Price cannot be agreed between the Vendor and the Company within 30 days of the receipt by the Company of the Transfer Notice, it shall be determined by the auditors of the Company for the time being (or some other expert selected by the directors) acting as expert and not as arbitrator and whose determination shall, in the absence of manifest error, be final and binding on the parties. The cost of such determination shall be borne equally as to one half by the Company and one half by the Vendor. If the holder of shares is a Bad Leaver (as defined in Article 26A4), the Offer Price shall not be more than the price the Vendor paid to acquire the shares.

26A2. Upon receiving a Transfer Notice the Company shall use its reasonable endeavours to procure a buyer for the shares at the Offer Price and in first instance shall offer the shares to the trustees of any Scheme. If the Company has been unable to find a buyer or buyers which is (are) acceptable to the Company the Vendor shall not be at liberty to dispose of the shares to any other person or organisation excepting to the Company at a price determined by the Company. In the event that the price offered by the Company for the shares is below the Offer Price the Vendor shall be at liberty to keep the shares until such time as the Company procures a buyer at an Offer Price agreed or determined in the light of the Company’s performance and prospects at that time and the Transfer Notice shall be held to be in abeyance until that time. In such circumstances, if the Vendor becomes a Bad Leaver (as defined in Article 26A4) before payment is made for the shares, the Offer Price shall not be more than the price the Vendor paid to acquire the shares.

26A3. The directors in their absolute discretion may decide on any occasion that certain persons (including the personal representatives of a deceased shareholder) shall be deemed to have served a transfer notice (a “Deemed Transfer Notice”) in respect of some or all of the leaver’s shares, namely a director or employee of the Company or any other company of which it has control who holds shares acquired pursuant to a Scheme or Plans who ceases or has ceased to be such a director or employee (“Cessation”) provided that the time and date of the Deemed Transfer
Notice shall be the time and date of Cessation or the date of acquisition of the shares as the case may be. A Deemed Transfer Notice shall be irrevocable.

26A4. For the purpose of articles 26A1 and 26A2, a “Bad Leaver” is any person who ceases to be an officer or employee of the Company or any company of which it has control other than in circumstances where the directors, in their absolute discretion, resolve (including in the event of a person’s death) that special circumstances apply such that an individual should not be treated as a Bad Leaver.

26A5. If a Vendor makes default in respect of his obligations the Company shall forthwith be deemed to be the duly appointed attorney of the Vendor with full power to execute complete and deliver in the name and on behalf of the Vendor a transfer of the relevant shares.

26A6. Articles 26A1-26A5 shall cease to apply in relation to any share if shares of the same class are quoted on any public investment exchange.

Drag along and tag along provisions

26A7. If at any time any shareholder or shareholders (the “Drag Along Vendors”) wish (and are permitted by these Articles) to transfer shares representing in aggregate not less than 75 per cent of the shares conferring rights to attend and vote at general meetings of the Company (the “75 Per Cent Holding”) then in issue to any person (the “Drag Along Acquiror”) then, provided all the conditions in Article 26A8 below are met, the Drag Along Vendors shall have the option (the “Drag Along Option”) to require the holders of all of the other shares to transfer their shareholdings to the Drag Along Acquiror or as that Drag Along Acquiror directs on the same financial terms and conditions as those accepted by the Drag Along Vendors.

26A8. The conditions mentioned in article 26A7 above are that:

1. the Drag Along Acquiror is not an existing shareholder or connected with any existing shareholder within the meaning of section 993 of the Income Tax Act 2007,
2. the terms of the transfers of shares to the Drag Along Acquiror are at arm’s length and financially the same for all shareholders,
3. within 14 days of the Drag Along Vendors agreeing to sell their shares, a notice in writing (a “Drag Along Notice”) is delivered to the Company and to each other shareholder stating the number of shares the Drag Along Vendors intend to transfer to the Drag Along Acquiror and the consideration for the transfer including all the terms and conditions attaching to the transfer.

26A9A. Drag Along Notice once given is irrevocable but both the notice and all the obligations under the notice will lapse after the expiry of six calendar months from issue if the Drag Along Vendors do not complete the transfer of the 75 Per Cent Holding to the Drag Along Acquiror.

26A10. If at any time any shareholder or shareholders (the “Tag Along Vendors”) transfer shares representing in aggregate not less than 75 per cent. of the shares conferring rights to attend and vote at general meetings of the Company (the “75 Per Cent Holding”) then in issue to any person (the “Tag Along Acquiror”) then any or all of the remaining shareholders shall have the option (the “Tag Along Option”) to require the Tag Along Vendors to procure a transfer of the entire shareholding of such remaining shareholder(s) to the Tag Along Acquiror or some other party for a consideration and on terms and conditions not less favourable than those which applied to the transfer by the Tag Along Vendors. If different Tag Along Vendors have accepted different terms then the Tag Along Option shall relate to the most favourable of those terms.

26A11. A notice of intention from any or all of the remaining shareholders to exercise the Tag Along Option (the “Exercise Notice”) shall be delivered to the Tag Along Vendors within 14 days of their formal agreement to the transfer of their shares, or of the first date on which such formal agreement becomes known to the person or persons seeking to exercise the Tag Along Option, whichever is the later.

26A12. The Exercise Notice once given is irrevocable but the Exercise Notice will lapse after the expiry of six calendar months from issue if the Tag Along Vendors do not complete the transfer of the 75 per cent Holding to the Tag Along Acquirer.

Transmission of shares

27.—(1) If title to a share passes to a transmittere, the company may only recognise the transmittere as having any title to that share.
(2) A transmittere who produces such evidence of entitlement to shares as the directors may properly require—
   (a) may, subject to the articles, choose either to become the holder of those shares or to have them transferred to another person, and
   (b) subject to the articles, and pending any transfer of the shares to another person, has the same rights as the holder had
(3) But transmitteres do not have the right to attend or vote at a general meeting, or agree to a proposed written resolution, in respect of shares to which they are entitled, by reason of the holder’s death or bankruptcy or otherwise, unless they become the holders of those shares.

Exercise of transmitteres’ rights

28.—(1) Transmitteres who wish to become the holders of shares to which they have become entitled must notify the company in writing of that wish.
(2) If the transmittere wishes to have a share transferred to another person, the transmittere must execute an instrument of transfer in respect of it.
(3) Any transfer made or executed under this article is to be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the transmittere has derived rights in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred.

Transmitteres bound by prior notices

29. If a notice is given to a shareholder in respect of shares and a transmittere is entitled to those shares, the transmittere is bound by the notice if it was given to the shareholder before the transmittere’s name has been entered in the register of members.
DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS

Procedure for declaring dividends

30.—(1) The company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends, and the directors may decide to pay interim dividends
(2) A dividend must not be declared unless the directors have made a recommendation as to its amount. Such a dividend must not exceed the amount recommended by the directors
(3) No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with shareholders’ respective rights
(4) Unless the shareholders’ resolution to declare or directors’ decision to pay a dividend, or the terms on which shares are issued, specify otherwise, it must be paid by reference to each shareholder’s holding of shares on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay it
(5) If the company’s share capital is divided into different classes, no interim dividend may be paid on shares carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrear
(6) The directors may pay at intervals any dividend payable at a fixed rate if it appears to them that the profits available for distribution justify the payment
(7) If the directors act in good faith, they do not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on shares with deferred or non-preferred rights

Payment of dividends and other distributions

31.—(1) Where a dividend or other sum which is a distribution is payable in respect of a share, it must be paid by one or more of the following means—
   (a) transfer to a bank or building society account specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide,
   (b) sending a cheque made payable to the distribution recipient by post to the distribution recipient at the distribution recipient’s registered address (if the distribution recipient is a holder of the share), or (in any other case) to an address specified by the distribution recipient either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide,
   (c) sending a cheque made payable to such person by post to such person at such address as the distribution recipient has specified either in writing or as the directors may otherwise decide; or
   (d) any other means of payment as the directors agree with the distribution recipient either in writing or by such other means as the directors decide
(2) In the articles, “the distribution recipient” means, in respect of a share in respect of which a dividend or other sum is payable—
   (a) the holder of the share, or
   (b) if the share has two or more joint holders, whichever of them is named first in the register of members, or
   (c) if the holder is no longer entitled to the share by reason of death or bankruptcy, or otherwise by operation of law, the transmitee
No interest on distributions

32. The company may pay interest on any dividend or other sum payable in respect of a share unless otherwise provided by—
(a) the terms on which the share was issued, or
(b) the provisions of another agreement between the holder of that share and the company

Unclaimed distributions

33.—(1) All dividends or other sums which are—
(a) payable in respect of shares, and
(b) unclaimed after having been declared or become payable, may be invested or otherwise made use of by the directors for the benefit of the company until claimed
(2) The payment of any such dividend or other sum into a separate account does not make the company a trustee in respect of it
(3) If—
(a) twelve years have passed from the date on which a dividend or other sum became due for payment, and
(b) the distribution recipient has not claimed it, the distribution recipient is no longer entitled to that dividend or other sum and it ceases to remain owing by the company

Non-cash distributions

34.—(1) Subject to the terms of issue of the share in question, the company may, by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the directors, decide to pay all or part of a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by transferring non-cash assets of equivalent value (including, without limitation, shares or other securities in any company)
(2) For the purposes of paying a non-cash distribution, the directors may make whatever arrangements they think fit, including, where any difficulty arises regarding the distribution—
(a) fixing the value of any assets;
(b) paying cash to any distribution recipient on the basis of that value in order to adjust the rights of recipients, and
(c) vesting any assets in trustees

Waiver of distributions

35. Distribution recipients may waive their entitlement to a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share by giving the company notice in writing to that effect, but if—
(a) the share has more than one holder, or
(b) more than one person is entitled to the share, whether by reason of the death or bankruptcy of one or more joint holders, or otherwise, the notice is not effective unless it is expressed to be given, and signed, by all the holders or persons otherwise entitled to the share
CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

Authority to capitalise and appropriation of capitalised sums

36.—(1) Subject to the articles, the directors may, if they are so authorised by an ordinary resolution—
   (a) decide to capitalise any profits of the company (whether or not they are available for distribution) which are not required for paying a preferential dividend, or any sum standing to the credit of the company’s share premium account or capital redemption reserve, and
   (b) appropriate any sum which they so decide to capitalise (a “capitalised sum”) to the persons who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend (the “persons entitled”) and in the same proportions.
(2) Capitalised sums must be applied—
   (a) on behalf of the persons entitled, and
   (b) in the same proportions as a dividend would have been distributed to them
(3) Any capitalised sum may be applied in paying up new shares of a nominal amount equal to the capitalised sum which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct
(4) A capitalised sum which was appropriated from profits available for distribution may be applied in paying up new debentures of the company which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct
(5) Subject to the articles the directors may—
   (a) apply capitalised sums in accordance with paragraphs (3) and (4) partly in one way and partly in another,
   (b) make such arrangements as they think fit to deal with shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions under this article (including the issuing of fractional certificates or the making of cash payments), and
   (c) authorise any person to enter into an agreement with the company on behalf of all the persons entitled which is binding on them in respect of the allotment of shares and debentures to them under this article

DECISION-MAKING BY SHAREHOLDERS

ORGANISATION OF GENERAL MEETINGS

Attendance and speaking at general meetings

37.—(1) A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting.
(2) A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when—
   (a) that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting, and
(b) that person’s vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting

(3) The directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it

(4) In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more members attending it are in the same place as each other

(5) Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them

Quorum for general meetings

38. No business other than the appointment of the chairman of the meeting is to be transacted at a general meeting if the persons attending it do not constitute a quorum

Chairing general meetings

39.—(1) If the directors have appointed a chairman, the chairman shall chair general meetings if present and willing to do so

(2) If the directors have not appointed a chairman, or if the chairman is unwilling to chair the meeting or is not present within ten minutes of the time at which a meeting was due to start—

(a) the directors present, or

(b) (if no directors are present), the meeting, must appoint a director or shareholder to chair the meeting, and the appointment of the chairman of the meeting must be the first business of the meeting

(3) The person chairing a meeting in accordance with this article is referred to as “the chairman of the meeting”

Attendance and speaking by directors and non-shareholders

40.—(1) Directors may attend and speak at general meetings, whether or not they are shareholders

(2) The chairman of the meeting may permit other persons who are not—

(a) shareholders of the company, or

(b) otherwise entitled to exercise the rights of shareholders in relation to general meetings, to attend and speak at a general meeting

Adjournment

41.—(1) If the persons attending a general meeting within half an hour of the time at which the meeting was due to start do not constitute a quorum, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the chairman of the meeting must adjourn it

(2) The chairman of the meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if—

(a) the meeting consents to an adjournment, or

(b) it appears to the chairman of the meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner
(3) The chairman of the meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by the meeting.
(4) When adjourning a general meeting, the chairman of the meeting must—
   (a) either specify the time and place to which it is adjourned or state that it is to continue at a time and place to be fixed by the directors, and
   (b) have regard to any directions as to the time and place of any adjournment which have been given by the meeting.
(5) If the continuation of an adjourned meeting is to take place more than 14 days after it was adjourned, the company must give at least 7 clear days’ notice of it (that is, excluding the day of the adjourned meeting and the day on which the notice is given)—
   (a) to the same persons to whom notice of the company’s general meetings is required to be given, and
   (b) containing the same information which such notice is required to contain.
(6) No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place.

VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

Voting: general

42. A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded in accordance with the articles.

Errors and disputes

43.—(1) No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.
(2) Any such objection must be referred to the chairman of the meeting, whose decision is final.

Poll votes

44.—(1) A poll on a resolution may be demanded—
   (a) in advance of the general meeting where it is to be put to the vote, or
   (b) at a general meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared.
(2) A poll may be demanded by—
   (a) the chairman of the meeting,
   (b) the directors,
   (c) two or more persons having the right to vote on the resolution, or
   (d) a person or persons representing not less than one tenth of the total voting rights of all the shareholders having the right to vote on the resolution.
(3) A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if—
   (a) the poll has not yet been taken, and
   (b) the chairman of the meeting consents to the withdrawal.
(4) Polls must be taken immediately and in such manner as the chairman of the meeting directs.
Content of proxy notices

45.—(1) Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a “proxy notice”) which—
   (a) states the name and address of the shareholder appointing the proxy,
   (b) identifies the person appointed to be that shareholder’s proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed,
   (c) is signed by or on behalf of the shareholder appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine, and
   (d) is delivered to the company in accordance with the articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate
(2) The company may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes
(3) Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions
(4) Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as—
   (a) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and
   (b) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself

Delivery of proxy notices

46.—(1) A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the company by or on behalf of that person.
(2) An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the company a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given
(3) A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates
(4) If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor’s behalf

Amendments to resolutions

47.—(1) An ordinary resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if—
   (a) notice of the proposed amendment is given to the company in writing by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 48 hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the chairman of the meeting may determine), and
   (b) the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chairman of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution
(2) A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution, if—
(a) the chairman of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed, and (b) the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution
(3) If the chairman of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chairman’s error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.

ADMINISTRATIVE ARRANGEMENTS

Means of communication to be used

48.—(1) Subject to the articles, anything sent or supplied by or to the company under the articles may be sent or supplied in any way in which the Companies Act 2006 provides for documents or information which are authorised or required by any provision of that Act to be sent or supplied by or to the company
(2) Subject to the articles, any notice or document to be sent or supplied to a director in connection with the taking of decisions by directors may also be sent or supplied by the means by which that director has asked to be sent or supplied with such notices or documents for the time being
(3) A director may agree with the company that notices or documents sent to that director in a particular way are to be deemed to have been received within a specified time of their being sent, and for the specified time to be less than 48 hours

Company seals

49.—(1) Any common seal may only be used by the authority of the directors
(2) The directors may decide by what means and in what form any common seal is to be used
(3) Unless otherwise decided by the directors, if the company has a common seal and it is affixed to a document, the document must also be signed by at least one authorised person in the presence of a witness who attests the signature
(4) For the purposes of this article, an authorised person is—
   (a) any director of the company,
   (b) the company secretary (if any), or
   (c) any person authorised by the directors for the purpose of signing documents to which the common seal is applied

No right to inspect accounts and other records

50. Except as provided by law or authorised by the directors or an ordinary resolution of the company, no person is entitled to inspect any of the company’s accounting or other records or documents merely by virtue of being a shareholder

Provision for employees on cessation of business

51. The directors may decide to make provision for the benefit of persons employed or formerly employed by the company or any of its subsidiaries (other than a director or former director or shadow director) in connection with the cessation or transfer to any person of the whole or part of the undertaking of the company or that subsidiary
