DIRECTORS' REPORT

The directors are pleased to present the annual accounts of the company for the year ended 31 March 2004.

Principle activities

The main objects of the company are twofold:

- 1 To hold the freehold title to the property at 24, Madeley Road, Ealing.
- 2 To maintain the said property in a proper state of repair by levying a service charge on the leaseholders of the 5 flats making up the property.

Review of activities for the period

Service charges levied to maintain the property exceeded expenditure during the year by £607 (deficit of £445, year ended 31 March 2003.) The surplus on the Income & Expenditure Account for the year has been transferred to reserves.

The company is not permitted to make a distribution as laid down by its Memorandum of Association.

Future Developments

The directors expect the company to continue its present activities.

Significant events after the date of the balance sheet

There are no post balance sheet events that the directors consider should be disclosed in the accounts.

Significant changes in fixed assets

There were no changes in the company's fixed assets during the year.

In the opinion of the directors, the company was entitled for the year ended 31 March 2004 to the exemption from the requirement to have the accounts for that year audited as conferred by Subsection (1) of Section 249A of the Companies Act 1985. Accordingly the accounts for the year ended 31 March 2004 have not been audited.

No notice has been deposited under Subsection (2) of section 249B of the companies Act 1985 in relation to the accounts for the year ended 31 March 2004.

The directors acknowledge their responsibilities for:

- (1) ensuring that the company keeps accounting records which comply with Section 221 of the Companies Act 1985; and
- (2) preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of the financial year and of its profit and loss for the financial year in accordance with the requirements of section 226, and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the Act relating to accounts, so far as applicable to the company.

Approved by the board on 4 December 2004.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS for the year ended to 31 March 2004

1 Accounting policies

(a) Accounting convention

These accounts have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with applicable standards with the exception described in Note 1(d) below.

(b) Income

Income comprises maintenance charges due from the owners of the individual flats and has been accounted for when due on an accruals basis.

(c) Expenditure

Expenditure represents that necessary to maintain or effect repairs to the property at 24, Madeley Road and with the exception of insurance premiums is accounted for when paid.

Insurance premiums are treated on an accruals basis.

(d) Fixed assets

Fixed assets are at stated cost.

The Directors consider that the Freehold to the property at 24, Madeley Road has an indefinite useful economic life. Hence they do not consider it appropriate to charge depreciation on this asset since they are of the opinion that there is no consumption of the asset through use or the effluxion of time.

(e) Insurance claims

The cost of repairs for which a successful claim in full is made against the Buildings Insurance policy will not be accounted for in the Company's books.

(f) Taxation

No Provision for Corporation Tax has been made. The company does not operate with a view to profit.
