The accompanying notes are an integral part of the financial statements.

1. Accounting policies

The principal accounting policies applied in the preparation of these financial statements are set out below. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, in compliance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 and in accordance with applicable International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS"). There are no accounting policies where the use of assumptions and estimates are determined to be significant to the financial statements.

A statement of comprehensive income, a statement of changes in equity and a statement of cash flows are not presented in these financial statements as these would show nil amounts for the current and preceding financial years.

2. Related party transactions

The company regarded by the directors as the ultimate parent company is Smith & Williamson Holdings Limited, a limited liability company incorporated and domiciled in England, which is also the parent undertaking of the largest and smallest group of undertakings for which group accounts are drawn up and of which the Company is a member. Copies of the group accounts may be obtained from the company secretary's office, Smith & Williamson Holdings Limited, 25 Moorgate, London EC2R 6AY.

Key management personnel, who are considered to be the directors, are employed by other companies in the Smith & Williamson group and consider that their services to the Company are incidental to their other activities within the group.
