The King's Community Foundation

Report of the Trustees
for the Year Ended 30 September 2016

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES
Objectives and aims
To support and serve its surrounding community and other organisations in the United Kingdom and around the world by accessing, evaluating and meeting the needs of those communities and thereby making a positive difference in the lives of others.

To enhance the living experience of individuals, families and "communities" both locally and globally by addressing issues of exclusion, poverty, marginalisation, lack of education and degeneration.

To align itself with socially marginalised and disconnected people such as the very young, the elderly, those whose nationality may not be of United Kingdom origin, and those who have been set apart from society because of lifestyle choices and behaviours.

The Foundation will seek to provide opportunities for acceptance, connection and/or integration back into a meaningful contribution to society and identify opportunities where involvement and integration could bring about regenerative change.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE
Charitable activities
During 2014 the charity transferred certain activities to its main sponsor, the King's Community Church. The charity is to remain dormant with the view to revisit KCF once sufficient charitable projects that align with the aims and objectives become available.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small companies.

Approved by order of the board of trustees on 14 November 2016 and signed on its behalf by:

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of
The King's Community Foundation

I report on the accounts for the year ended 30 September 2016 set out on pages four to seven.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner
The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity's trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1)(a) to (c) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under Section 44(1)(c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report
My examination was carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement
In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

(1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements
   - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations; and
   - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with Regulation 8 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met; or

(2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
