3. Share Capital

3.1 The authorised share capital of the Company at the date of incorporation of the Company is £1,000 divided into 1,000 shares of £1 each.

3.2 For the purposes of section 80 CA 1985 and subject to the provisions of Article 4.1, the directors are (so long as that section remains in force) unconditionally authorised by this Article at any time or times during the period of five years from the date of incorporation of the Company:

In the absence of any such provision, all shares whether forming part of the existing or any increased capital shall be at the disposal of the directors who may issue them, subject to section 80 CA 1985 (so long as that section remains in force), to such persons at such times and generally on such terms and conditions and with such rights, priorities, privileges or restrictions as they may think fit. Accordingly, and in accordance with section 91 CA 1985, sections 89(1) and 90(1) - (6) inclusive CA 1985 shall not apply to the Company. 7. Transfer of Shares

7.1 The directors may, in their absolute discretion and without giving any reason, refuse to register any transfer of any share whether or not it is a fully paid share. The first sentence of Regulation 24 shall be modified accordingly.

8. Transmission of Shares

8.1 The directors may at any time give notice requiring any person entitled to a share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the holder of that share to elect either to be registered himself in respect of the share or to transfer the share. If that notice is not complied with within 30 days of the date of that notice the directors may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other monies payable in respect of the share until the requirements of that notice have been complied with. Regulation 31 shall be modified accordingly.

9. General Meetings

- (b) if such a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, or if during a meeting such a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting if convened on the requisition of Members shall be dissolved. In any other case, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such time and place as the directors may determine. If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall be dissolved.

9.2 The following provisions of this Article apply if and so long as the Company has only a single Member:

- (a) that Member shall be entitled at any time to call a general meeting;

- (d) if the single Member takes any decision which may be taken by the Company in general meeting and which has effect as if agreed by the Company in general meeting, the single Member shall (unless the decision is taken by way of a written resolution) provide the Company with a written record of that decision (but failure to do so shall not affect the validity of the relevant decision).

9.3 Regulation 37 shall be modified by the deletion of its second sentence.

9.4 At any general meeting of the Company, a poll may be demanded by one or more Members present in person or by proxy and having the right to vote at the meeting. Sub paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of Regulation 46 shall be modified accordingly.

- 10.2 Subject to Article 10.3, the minimum number of directors shall be two.
- 10.3 If and so long as the Company has only a single director the minimum number of directors shall be one and a sole director shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of the directors and shall have and exercise all the powers, duties and discretions conferred on or vested in the directors by these Articles. Regulations 64 and 89 shall be modified accordingly in these circumstances.
- 10.4 Subject as otherwise provided by these Articles, the Company may by ordinary resolution appoint a person who is willing to act to be a director either to fill a vacancy or as an additional director.
- 10.5 The directors may also appoint a person who is willing to act to be a director, either to fill a vacancy or as an additional director, provided that the appointment does not cause the number of directors to exceed any number fixed by or in accordance with these Articles as the maximum number of directors.
- 10.6 In addition and without prejudice to the provisions of sections 168 and 169 CA 2006, the Company may by ordinary resolution remove any director before the expiry of his period of office and may, if thought fit, by ordinary resolution appoint another person in his place. Removal of a director in accordance with this Article shall be without prejudice to any claim that director may have for damages for breach of any contract between him and the Company.

11. Powers and Proceedings of Directors

- 11.1 Any director or member of a committee of the directors may participate in a meeting of the directors or that committee by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment whereby all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. - (c) The provisions of this Article apply without prejudice (and subject) to the provisions of section 175(6) CA 2006. Nothing in these Articles shall invalidate an authorisation.
- (d) A conflicted Director seeking authorisation of his conflicting matter shall disclose to the Directors the nature and extent of his conflicting matter as soon as is reasonably practicable. The conflicted Director shall provide the Directors with such details of his conflicting matter as are necessary for the directors to decide how to address the conflicting matter, together with such additional information as may be requested by the Directors.

1 KLIK LTD

- (e) Any Director (including the conflicted Director) may propose that a conflicted Director's conflicting matter be authorised.  - (i) the Directors may (whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently):
 - (1) require that the conflicted Director is excluded from the receipt of information, the participation in discussions and/or the making of decisions (whether at meetings of the Directors or otherwise) related to the conflicting matter; and
 - (2) impose on the conflicted Director such other terms or conditions for the purpose of dealing with any actual or potential conflict of interest which may arise from the conflicting matter as they may determine;
 - (ii) the conflicted Director will be obliged to conduct himself in accordance with any terms or conditions imposed by the Directors pursuant to the authorisation;
 - (iii) the Directors may provide that, where the conflicted Director obtains (otherwise than through his position as a Director) information that is confidential to a third party, the conflicted Director will not be obliged to disclose the information to the Company, or to use or apply the information in relation to the Company's affairs, where to do so would amount to a breach of that confidence;
 - (iv) the terms of the authorisation shall be recorded in writing (but the authorisation shall be effective whether or not the terms are so recorded); and
 - (v) the Directors may revoke or vary the authorisation at any time but this will not affect anything done by the conflicted Director prior to such revocation in accordance with the terms of the authorisation.

11.3 A conflicted Director shall not, by reason of his office or of the fiduciary relationship thereby established, be liable to account to the Company for any benefit which he (or a person connected with him) derives from a conflicting matter authorised by the Directors and no transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such benefit.

- 11.4 (a) A Director who has directly or indirectly an interest or a duty in a matter which is material and which conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the Company may, notwithstanding his interest or duty, vote on the matter and be included for the purposes of a quorum at any meeting at which the matter is considered provided that:
- (i) he has disclosed the nature and extent of his interest or duty giving rise to his conflict of interest; and
 - (ii) where his conflict of interest is constituted by or arises from a conflicting matter of his, that conflicting matter has been authorised and the Director has not been required to be excluded from participation in discussions and/or the making of decisions related to the matter.

Compliance with sections 177 and 182 CA 2006 shall be sufficient disclosure by a Director for the purpose of Regulations 85 and 86.

(b) If a question arises at a meeting of the Directors about whether a Director (other than the chairman of the meeting) has an interest which is likely to give rise to a conflict of interest or if he can vote or be counted in the quorum, and the Director does not agree to abstain from voting on the issue or not to be counted in the quorum, the question must be referred to the chairman of the meeting. The ruling of the chairman of the meeting about any other Director is final and conclusive, unless the nature or extent of the Director's interest (so far as it is known to him) has not been fairly disclosed to the Directors. If the question arises regarding the chairman of the meeting, the question shall be decided by a resolution of the Directors. The chairman of the meeting cannot vote on the question but can be counted in the quorum. The Directors' resolution about the chairman of the meeting is conclusive, unless the nature and extent of the chairman's interest (so far as it is known to him) has not been fairly disclosed to the Directors. Regulation 98 shall be modified accordingly.

11.5 The Company may by ordinary resolution ratify any transaction or arrangement which has not been properly authorised by reason of a contravention of these Articles.

11.6 For the purposes of Regulation 85, and Articles 11.4 and 11.5:

(a) an interest or duty is "material" unless it cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest; and

(b) a "conflict of interest" includes a conflict of interest and duty and a conflict of duties.

11.7 The directors may exercise all the powers of the Company conferred by the Memorandum to pay and/or provide pensions, annuities, gratuities, superannuation and other allowances, benefits, advantages, facilities and services both for persons who are or have been directors of, or who are or have been employed by, the Company or by any subsidiary or associated company of the Company and their dependants and relatives and the directors are entitled to retain any benefits received by them or any of them by reason of the exercise of any such powers. Regulation 87 shall not apply to the Company.

11.8 The directors shall be entitled to such remuneration (if any) by way of fee as shall from time to time be determined by resolution of the directors and the directors (including alternate directors) shall also be entitled to be paid their reasonable travelling, hotel and other expenses of attending and returning from meetings of the Company or otherwise incurred while engaged on the business of the Company or in the discharge of their duties. Regulations 82, 83 and 84 shall be amended accordingly.

11.9 Any director who, by request of the directors, performs special services for any purpose of the Company which in the opinion of the directors is outside the normal scope of that director's duties shall receive such extra remuneration by way of salary, percentage of profits or otherwise as the directors may determine, which shall be charged as part of the Company's ordinary revenue expenses.

12. Alternate Directors

12.1 The following provisions apply to the Company by way of variation of Regulations 65 to 69 inclusive:

(a) the appointment of an alternate director shall automatically terminate on the happening of any event which, if he were a director, would cause him to vacate the office of director or if his appointor ceases for any reason to be a director otherwise than by retiring and being re appointed at the same Meeting;

(b) the Company shall reimburse each alternate director for all expenses which would properly be repaid to him if he had been a director;

(c) an alternate director shall be entitled to be indemnified by the Company to the same extent as if he were a director; and

(d) a director or any other person may act as alternate director to represent more than one director. An alternate director shall be entitled at Meetings of the directors or any committee of the directors to one vote for every director whom he represents in addition to his own vote (if any) as a director. Regulation 88 shall be modified accordingly.

13. Rights of Majority Shareholder(s)

- 13.1 (a) The holder or holders of a majority in nominal value of that part of the issued share capital of the Company which confers the right for the time being to attend and vote at all general meetings of the Company (the "Majority Shareholder(s)") shall have power at any time from time to time (by notice in writing to the Company signed by or on behalf of the Majority Shareholder(s) and left at or sent by recorded delivery post, or by international recorded post if overseas, to the registered office of the Company) to appoint any person to be a director of the Company but so that the total number of directors shall not at any time exceed any maximum number which may be fixed in accordance with these Articles.
- (b) In addition and without prejudice to the provisions of section 168 of the Act, the Majority Shareholder(s) shall have power at any time from time to time (by notice in writing to the Company and to the director concerned signed by or on behalf of the Majority Shareholder(s) and left at or sent by recorded delivery post, or by international recorded post if overseas, to the registered office of the Company) to remove any director before the expiry of his period of office. Such removal shall be without prejudice to any claim that director may have for damages for breach of any contract between him and the Company.
- (c) The notices to be given under paragraphs (a) or (b) above may consist of several documents which together achieve the required majority.

14. Notices

- 14.1 Any notice to be given to or by any person for the purposes of these Articles shall be in writing except that a notice to a director need not be in writing.
- 14.2 In Regulation 112 the words "first class" shall be inserted before the words "post in a prepaid envelope". The provisions of Regulation 112 as so varied shall (with only the necessary changes) apply also to written notices to directors.
- 14.3 Where a notice is sent by first class post, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing, pre paying and posting a letter containing the notice and to have been effected in the case of a notice of a meeting 24 hours after the letter containing the notice of meeting is posted. A notice sent by electronic communication shall be deemed to be given at the time it is transmitted to the person to whom it is addressed.

15. Indemnity

- 15.1 To the fullest extent permitted by law:
- (a) every director, alternate director, secretary or other officer of the Company or of any other company which is a subsidiary of the Company shall be entitled to be indemnified out of the assets of the Company against all costs, charges, losses, damages and liabilities incurred by him in the actual or purported execution or discharge of his duties or exercise of his powers or otherwise in relation thereto, including (without limitation) any liability incurred in defending any proceedings (whether civil or criminal) which relate to anything done or omitted or alleged to have been done or omitted by him as an officer or employee of the Company or of any other company which is a subsidiary of the Company, but in each case without prejudice to any indemnity to which he may be otherwise entitled;
- (b) the Directors may authorise loans by the Company to any director, alternate director, secretary or other officer of the Company or of any other company which is a subsidiary of the Company for the purposes of meeting any liability incurred in defending any proceedings referred to in Article 15.1(a) above; and
- (c) the Directors may purchase and maintain insurance at the expense of the Company for the benefit of any person who is or was at any time a director or other officer or employee of the Company or of any other company which is a subsidiary of the Company indemnifying that person against any liability which may attach to him or loss or expenditure which he may incur in relation to anything done or alleged to have been done or omitted to be done as a director, officer or employee.
