Director's Report

The activities of Pillars of Fire have continued as normal. Seahaven House of Prayer has met weekly on a Friday from 10am – 2pm praying for the community, the nation and the nations. In praying for the nations this has been particularly for missions known to the house of prayer. The link with national and local prayer networks has grown with input and support from Hastings and Eastbourne.

In our support for the Beachy Head Chaplaincy we were asked to consider being trustees of the chaplaincy to formalise our links with them. On a variety of occasions we had speakers from organisations who were able to inform us on matters for prayer of encourage us in our activities.

We were considering amalgamating with another organisation called Prophetic Revelation to the Nations with whom we have some affinity and are involved in similar works of prayer.
