2 The application

Warning to all applicants

It is an offence to knowingly or recklessly provide false or misleading information on this application.

You are advised to read Section 4 and to consult the guidance available from Companies House before completing this form. If in doubt, seek professional advice.

I/We as director(s) / the majority of directors apply for this company to be struck off the Register and declare that none of the circumstances described in section 1004 or 1005 of the Companies Act 2006 (being circumstances in which the directors would otherwise be prohibited under those sections from making an application) exists in relation to the company. ①

This form must be signed by the sole director if only 1, by both if there are 2, or by the majority if there are more than 2.

→ Go to Section 3 'Name(s) and Signature(s) of the directors'

① Please read the guidance on our website at www.companieshouse.gov.uk or section 1004 or 1005 of the Companies Act 2006 for circumstances under which an application may not be made.

Please note that on dissolution all property and rights etc will be passed to the Crown.

1. The first part of the document discusses the general situation in the country and the role of the government.

2. The second part of the document discusses the economic situation and the measures taken by the government to improve it.

3. The third part of the document discusses the social situation and the measures taken by the government to improve it.

II. Economic Situation

The economic situation in the country is generally stable, but there are some problems that need to be solved. The government has taken several measures to improve the economy, including increasing investment in infrastructure and promoting private enterprise.

III. Social Situation

The social situation in the country is generally stable, but there are some problems that need to be solved. The government has taken several measures to improve the social situation, including increasing investment in education and healthcare.

The government has also taken measures to improve the living standards of the population, including increasing the minimum wage and providing social security benefits.

IV. Conclusion

The government has made significant progress in improving the economic and social situation in the country. However, there are still some challenges that need to be addressed, such as unemployment and income inequality.

The government will continue to take measures to improve the economy and the social situation, and to ensure that the benefits of growth are shared by all citizens.

The government will also continue to work to improve the living standards of the population, and to ensure that the country is on a path of sustainable development.

The government is committed to the principles of democracy and the rule of law, and to the promotion of human rights and the well-being of all citizens.
