This template illustrates what the Regulator of Community Interest Companies considers to be best practice for completing a simplified community interest company report. All such reports must be delivered in accordance with section 34 of the Companies (Audit, Investigations and Community Enterprise) Act 2004 and contain the information required by Part 7 of the Community Interest Company Regulations 2005. For further guidance see chapter 8 of the Regulator's guidance notes and the alternate example provided for a more complex company with more detailed notes.

PART 1 - GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE COMPANY'S ACTIVITIES AND IMPACT

In the space provided below, please insert a general account of the company's activities in the financial year to which the report relates, including a fair and accurate description of how they have benefited the community, or section of the community, which the company is intended to serve.

The company operates the Directory of Open Access Journals, DOAJ (www.doaj.org), which is a service aggregating on a global scale scholarly peer-reviewed journals in all subjects, many languages and published in more than 120 countries. DOAJ offers a unique gateway for the various stakeholders (researchers, students, libraries, universities, research funders and people in general). All services provided by the DOAJ is free of charge for everyone.

On a daily basis the DOAJ receives more than 20 000 visits from all over the world, primarily researchers, students and librarians. Data from the DOAJ is harvested by many library catalogues, aggregators and search engines, facilitating the dissemination of open academic research. Number of listed journals has increased by 20%, available metadata for harvesting has increased by 40%. DOAJ is widely recognized as the authoritative source for quality open access scholarly journals.
