The Trustees present their report and the financial statements for the year ended 30 September 2014.

Activities

The company is a registered charity and exists to provide a hospice service to persons suffering from a terminal illness, the advancement of public education in the methods and policies relating to death and bereavement, the relief of sickness in particular through the provision of a counselling service, the promotion of research into medical, psychological and related aspects of dying and bereavement and the publication of the useful results of that research.

The charity is managed by its trustees who meet regularly to plan future strategies and agree grants to be made.

Island Hospice and Bereavement Service (UK) works closely with Island Hospice Service, Zimbabwe in pursuit of its charitable objectives and, at the request of certain donors to Island Hospice Service Zimbabwe, facilitates the transfer of funds through its bank account to Zimbabwe on behalf of such donors.

Financial results and future activities

Incoming resources for the year amounted to £3,142 made up of donations.

During the year grants of £nil (2013: £12,672) were made to Island Hospice Service, Zimbabwe for the cost of running the centre operated by that charity.

The trustees plan to provide funding and assistance for Island Hospice Service, Zimbabwe in the future.

Reserves policy

Sufficient cash reserves are needed in the general fund to enable the charity to continue the furtherance of its objectives. At the year end cash reserves amounted to £10,332 (2013: £13,057). Cash reserves are held at this level in order to allow the charity to achieve its plans to continue to support Island Hospice Service, Zimbabwe.

Risk review

The trustees have assessed the major risks to which the charity is exposed, in particular those related to the operations and finances of the charity, and are satisfied that systems are in place to mitigate exposure to the major risks.
Responsibilities of the trustees

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the affairs of the charitable company as at the balance sheet date and of its incoming resources and application of resources, including income and expenditure for the financial year. In preparing those financial statements, the trustees should follow best practice and:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to assume that the company will continue on that basis.

The trustees are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. The trustees are also responsible for the safeguarding of the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention of fraud and other irregularities.

Trustees

The trustees, who are directors for the purpose of company law, who served during the year and up to the date of this report are set out on page 1.

Members of the charitable company guarantee to contribute an amount not exceeding £10 to the assets of the charitable company in the event of winding up. The total number of such guarantees at 30 September 2014 was 5.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice - Accounting and Reporting by Charities and in accordance with the special provisions of Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small entities.

Approved by the trustees on 3 March 2015 and signed on their behalf by:

Mr D Bodell
Chairman
I report on the accounts of the company for the year ended 30 September 2014 set out on Pages 5 - 8.

Respective responsibilities of the trustees and the examiner

As the company’s trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. You consider that the audit requirement of section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the Act) does not apply. It is my responsibility to state, on the basis of the procedures specified in the general directions given by the Charity Commissioners under section 43(7)(b) of the Act, whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of independent examiner’s report.

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the company and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanation from you as trustees concerning any such matters. In common with similar donor funded organisations it is not possible to independently verify donated income until it’s inclusion in the accounting records. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner’s statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1 Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirement

   a) To keep accounting records in accordance with section 41 of the Act; and
   b) To prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with accounting requirements of the Act

have not been met; or

2 To which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
