

Enjoy this egg as you leave today,
but as you eat don't forget to pray.
For as you bite and lick out the yoke
remember all Jesus did and spoke.

Remember that for you He died
and in a tomb He was laid inside.

But He didn't stay, He rose again
for He's the King that will forever reign!

So with your empty egg in hand
simply thank Him and make a stand
that from this day you'll live for Him -
whether life is fun or if it's grim.

And know that He is always there
because, for you, He will always care.

So come on now, let's celebrate!
There's no one like Jesus, He's simply

GREAT!

poem written by Katy Hailes

Enjoy this egg as you leave today,
but as you eat don't forget to pray.
For as you bite and lick out the yoke
remember all Jesus did and spoke.

Remember that for you He died
and in a tomb He was laid inside.

But He didn't stay, He rose again
for He's the King that will forever reign!

So with your empty egg in hand
simply thank Him and make a stand
that from this day you'll live for Him -
whether life is fun or if it's grim.

And know that He is always there
because, for you, He will always care.

So come on now, let's celebrate!
There's no one like Jesus, He's simply

GREAT!

poem written by Katy Hailes

Enjoy this egg as you leave today,
but as you eat don't forget to pray.
For as you bite and lick out the yoke
remember all Jesus did and spoke.

Remember that for you He died
and in a tomb He was laid inside.

But He didn't stay, He rose again
for He's the King that will forever reign!

So with your empty egg in hand
simply thank Him and make a stand
that from this day you'll live for Him -
whether life is fun or if it's grim.

And know that He is always there
because, for you, He will always care.

So come on now, let's celebrate!
There's no one like Jesus, He's simply

GREAT!

poem written by Katy Hailes

Enjoy this egg as you leave today,
but as you eat don't forget to pray.
For as you bite and lick out the yoke
remember all Jesus did and spoke.

Remember that for you He died
and in a tomb He was laid inside.

But He didn't stay, He rose again
for He's the King that will forever reign!

So with your empty egg in hand
simply thank Him and make a stand
that from this day you'll live for Him -
whether life is fun or if it's grim.

And know that He is always there
because, for you, He will always care.

So come on now, let's celebrate!
There's no one like Jesus, He's simply

GREAT!

poem written by Katy Hailes