

This is the great inventor Thomas Edison.

Can you name any of his inventions?

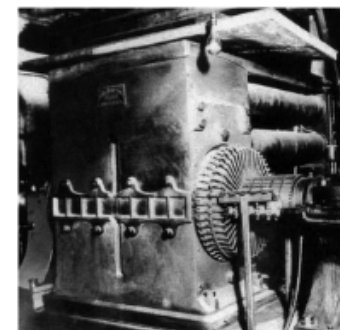

The phonograph -
A machine to record the spoken voice and play it back.

The peep hole Kinetoscope -
A machine for showing moving pictures.

The world's first electrical power stations.

Edison did not actually invent the light bulb. However, he created the first design which was economical and practical to use.