WHERE YOU DEFINE THE SECTOR’S FUTURE

This is the most important event in housing and we don’t take that responsibility lightly. Truly innovative, strategic decision making requires both headspace and inspiration. The Summit offers this through:

CONTENTIOUS DEBATE
Thought leading discussions will set the tone for housing by addressing high level questions in collaboration with politicians in the room.

KNOWLEDGE SHARING
We’ve left plenty of space for you to have your say in interactive open spaces to share experiences and ideas.

BEING SOLUTIONS FOCUSED
Trailblazers from the sector and related worlds will be prepared to tackle the thorniest of issues. But we won’t just leave it there. You will be able to draw out tangible solutions to take back to the office. Your time is precious and we are dedicated to making the most of it.

UNRIVALLED CHOICE
We understand how varied your challenges are, and our programme is carefully crafted to reflect that. You decide how your time is best spent at the event, be it choosing what’s most relevant, picking the right time for a water cooler chat or when to take a break.

NEW FOR 2019
Tenant voices at the heart of debates, a dedicated deep dive zone on supply, practical workshops on innovation at the Ideas Labs and book reviews on inspiring best sellers that have changed people’s lives.

How can we build stronger, more equal relationships with tenants, win trust where it has been lost, and tell the story of our social purpose?

QUALITY
Great quality homes where people can feel safe are at the heart of what we do. How do we innovate to deliver the highest possible standards for new and existing homes?

DELIVERY
We need to build 145,000 affordable homes every year - how do we deliver what the country needs through new developments and regenerating communities?

TAKE YOUR PICK

QUESTION TIME

HOW DO WE BUILD TRUST WITH THE PEOPLE WHO MATTER MOST?

Trust has been shaken in public institutions across the country - and like many sectors we’re facing questions about the way we make decisions, involve and listen to our customers. Strengthening the relationship between landlords and tenants will be critical in rebuilding trust - but how can we do that in an inclusive, consistent and meaningful way?

MEET UP WITH THE ‘WHO’S WHO’ OF HOUSING

We promise to bring you carefully curated experiences that will feel easy to engage in while giving you access to the people that are most important to you and your business. The Summit offers unrivalled opportunities to discuss your challenges with housing association executive teams, consultants, and the National Housing Federation.

Sessions are designed to be interactive, with opportunities for audience members to have their say throughout. There’s also plenty of time and space outside the schedule for you and your team to translate theory and inspiration into practical actions, and to compare best practice with your peers in an informal, collaborative setting.

LEFT FEELING CHALLENGED, OPTIMISTIC AND BUZZING WITH IDEAS.

Chief Executive,
Shepherds Bush Housing

BOLD IN ITS APPROACH.
