

Peter Auto 2018 Provisional Calendar

Barcelona – 6 to 8 April

Espiritu de Montjuïc 2018 (6-8 April): the rendezvous at the beginning of April prepared by Peter Auto will kick off the season of the series by Peter Auto on Catalonian soil. What's more it takes place on a track that was often the theatre of Formula 1 events, and our entrants were champing at the bit to have their first taste of it at the wheel of their historic racing cars.

Spa Classic – 18 to 20 May

Spa-Classic (18-20 May): created in 2011 on the drivers' favourite circuit, the Belgian meeting has gradually expanded and today it is among the major European rendezvous for historic races.

Grand Prix de l'Age d'Or – 8 to 10 June

Grand Prix de l'Age d'Or (8-10 June): Peter Auto started organising this event again in 2014, and this blue-riband meeting in the world of historic racing has now recaptured its past glory. The drivers love its circuit that has been totally revamped; and the "art de vivre bourguignon" makes it a choice rendezvous.

Le Mans Classic – 6 to 8 July

To race in the 2018 Le Mans Classic in Group C Racing entrants must have taken part in two qualifying races.

In order to improve driver safety even further they will have to take part in two qualifying rounds before racing in the 2018 Le Mans Classic. This requirement can be met in the context of meetings organised by Historic Sportscar Racing (Daytona Classic, Sebring 12-Hours Classic) or events on the Peter Auto calendar.

Dix Mille Tours – 31 August to 2 September

The Dix Mille Tours (31st August-2nd September): the 9th staging of the Dix Mille Tours du Castellet is being held earlier than usual, and it will take full advantage of the summer weather reigning in Provence on a track that hosted the French Formula 1 Grand Prix a few weeks earlier.

Imola Classic – 26 to 28 October

Imola-Classic (26-28 October): next year marks a return for the drivers to the very popular Italian circuit that they already visited in 2012, 2013 and 2016. This meeting at the end of October will bring down the curtain on the season of the series by Peter Auto with a warm Italian flourish.

The full 2018 Peter Auto calendar, including the other events organised by the Paris-based company, will be published in the coming weeks.
