Some suggestions worthy of your consideration:

- Bogyoke Aung San Market

Built in 1926, Bogyoke Aung San Market, also known as Scott Market, houses more than 2,000 shops, ideal for browsing for your perfect longyi (Burmese sarong). With its colonial architecture and inner cobblestone streets, the market is also popular with the locals and offers rows of local treasures waiting to be discovered.

- Sule Pagoda

Legend has it that the Sule Pagoda was built before the famous Shwedagon Pagoda, which will make it more than 2,500 years old, to enshrine a strand of the Buddha's sacred hair. It was marked out as the centre of Yangon by the architect who created the present day street layout of Yangon.

- St. Mary's Cathedral

Located in Yangon, St. Mary's Cathedral is the largest cathedral in Myanmar, designed by Dutch architect Joseph Cuypers in 1895. The cathedral's red brick exterior consists of spires and a bell tower, which withstood an earthquake in 1930 and the Japanese invasion during World War II.
