APRÈS-SKI

With more award winning restaurants than any other village in Austria, Lech is proud of its upmarket après-ski scene. The village has 64 restaurants in addition to four discos and over 20 bars.

It is not surprising that the Orient Express stops at nearby St. Anton – this is the playground for wealthy people wanting to party late into the night! With over 30 restaurants and bars and a number of ski huts and discos, the resort is as famous for its après-ski as its fabulous slopes.

Fresh from the slopes people often meet at one of the piste-side bars such as “Mooserwirt” where you can drink and relax until 8pm and then ski down into town where a vast choice awaits you!

The most popular bar is undoubtedly “Kandahar” which serves exquisite Thai meals and lets you party until 6am, but there is plenty on offer here for every palate.

SUMMER ACTIVITIES

SUMMER

During the summer months Lech becomes the ultimate resort for relaxation. A great favourite with families is the vast 60m heated forest swimming pool with a giant slide and large paddling pool for children.

Hiking and mountain climbing are of course very popular, and if you feel like viewing the spectacular scenery from a great height another option is a tandem paragliding descent from 2,330m! There is also a golf academy, tennis, trout fishing and a small bore rifle shooting range to ensure you can easily find plenty to keep you occupied.

The unspoilt valleys surrounding St Anton offer visitors a host of activities to enjoy throughout the summer. There are 300km of signposted hiking trails and a further 200km of mountain biking routes, two swimming pools, golf, horse riding, mountain climbing and the "Supersauser" summer toboggan run is not to be missed - a gondola will take you to 1,400m then once in your toboggan you can speed down a 800m track full of sharp twists and valley bridges.

GOLF & FISHING

The new "Arl-rock" sports centre is very popular with families and offers tennis, volleyball, bowling, indoor football, squash and climbing. For those who like to take things a little slower, in the centre of St Anton is the famous Arlberg wellness centre with three swimming pools, saunas, solariums, gym and many indulgent treatments available.
