Resort information

Veysonnaz village is at 1350m complete with a traditional church, charming restaurants and old chalets. Above the old village at 1400m is the ski resort of Veysonnaz with a range of shops, hotels, restaurants and bars.

A high speed lift takes you straight into the Verbier ski area, which has over 410km of prepared pistes and is the largest and one of the most challenging ski areas in Switzerland.

Veysonnaz ski resort is an excellent family resort which enjoys the afternoon sun and has beautiful views over the Rhone valley. The resort has everything you need in a ski resort, including a butcher, baker, half a dozen bars and cafes, four restaurants, a disco and a wellness centre with swimming pool and spa.

It just ten minutes by car to Nendaz or fifteen minutes to Sion which has a beautiful pedestrianised medieval centre. There is plenty to do in the area in summer and in winter, with the rustic village offering year round appeal.

Getting there

Access is extremely easy making this a good weekend destination. Veysonnaz is just 1 hour 45 minutes from Geneva and it is motorway all the way until the last 15 minutes’ drive up from Sion. Sion Airport, which has recently been used primarily as a military base, is trialling SwissAir flights from London this February, making the transfer time shorter than ever.
Restaurant: Caboulis

Caboulis is a fantastic mountain restaurant that offers classic Swiss food from local sources. The owner makes his own cheese, and is well known for it across the area. With a cozy atmosphere and an excellent cuisine, the Caboulis is a must visit while in the area.

Activity: Full Moon Skiing

Skiing under the full moon is one of those things that you don't often get the chance to do, and in Veysonnaz they offer the chance to hit the slopes after the sun has set. This is a great activity for skiers of an intermediate level and better, with space for children over 14 years old.
Winter

Veysonnaz has excellent snow quality throughout the winter and skiing from mid November to mid April. Snow cannons ensure excellent conditions through the season, while a high speed lift gives direct access do the entire 4 Valleys area including the Mont-Fort glacier at 3330m.

The immediate ski area is high altitude and has a mix of beginner and intermediate slopes, with plenty of off-piste for expert skiers. A new gondola, arriving for the 2016/17 season, will take skiers to the top of the famous world cup downhill Piste de l’Ours. The local slopes are extensive and uncrowded so there is no real need to go to Verbier, but the pass is well covered with snow cannons, and always open.

The Magrappe at the foot of the slopes is the focus for après ski where you can get a drink and a great wood-fired pizza, or you can rent a pair of snow shoes and walk up to the charming “Caboulis” restaurant on the ski slopes above the resort. There are ski lockers and boot warmers near the pistem and plenty of winter walks and other winter sports available.
Summer
There are about 300km of footpaths in the area around Veysonnaz and there are plenty of opportunities for more challenging tours in the high mountains. The “Bisse de Vex” provide pleasant walks with no great differences in altitude and fantastic views.

Also on hand in resort are tennis courts, a swimming pool with a spa, a climbing wall, beach volleyball, table tennis, archery, biking, and a kindergarten. With activities for all the family to enjoy, Veysonnaz is a fantastic place to enjoy a Summer break.

Golf
There are several golf courses in the region including a good 18 hole course in Sion, just 20 minutes away. Crans Montana boasts two splendid courses. The Golf Club Crans-sur-Sierre was established in 1906 and the Severiano Ballesteros course is the home of the prestigious Omega European Masters. The Jack Nicklaus course has been voted as the best 9 holes in Switzerland; although the course is relatively short it's challenging even for experts.
