

Job Description

Job Title: Analyst Programmer

Reports to: Philip Ruelle - Technical Architect/Development Manager

Job Purpose

To work as directed to provide software solutions that would improve the efficacy of the Altis Live Production systems used by Trading Operations and Client Services

The Analyst Programmer would be responsible for:

- The delivery of fail-safe software solutions and code
- Analysing the needs and requirements of the existing IT infrastructure
- Completing projects on time as directed

Key Performance Indicators

- Accuracy of coding
- Delivery on time
- Data management

Principal Accountabilities

- Team player.
- Able to resolve problems and work alone.
- Good problem solving skills, with a keen analytical mind.
- Able to work under pressure and crisis manage.
- Good time management skills, able to work to project plans and meet deadlines.
- Excellent communicator. Must be fluent in English both orally and written.

Knowledge and Experience Required

The job holder would ideally have attained a degree at 2.1 or better in Maths or Physics or Computer Science or Electrical Engineering.

The job holder would ideally be familiar with:

- OO programming techniques and the system development life cycle
- Transact SQL, relational database design and development (stored procedures, triggers and views etc).
- Programming experience in C#/ASP.NET or VB.

Team Leader should also ideally:

- Have previously managed a team
- Work with Senior Project Manager to ensure team delivers on time and to budget

Job Context

This role is pivotal to the success of the business in developing competitive advantage.