CAMBRIDGESHIRE POLICE AND CRIME COMMISSIONER DECISION RECORD – CPCC 2014-030

Subject	Community Remedy
Decision	Agree the options proposed for Community Remedy in line with the statutory duty under Section 101 of the Anti-Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014.
Decision Summary	Section 101 of the Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014 (“the Act”) places a statutory duty on the Police and Crime Commissioner (“the Commissioner”) to prepare a Community Remedy document for its area. A Community Remedy document is a list of actions any of which might, in the opinion of the Commissioner, be appropriate in a particular case to be carried out by a person who has engaged in anti-social behaviour or has committed an offence and is to be dealt with for that behaviour or offence without court proceedings. In preparing the Community Remedy document the Act requires the Commissioner to consult with the Chief Constable of Cambridgeshire Constabulary (“the Chief Constable”), local authorities, community representatives and the public as to: the actions which will assist in the person’s rehabilitation; ensure that the person makes reparation for the behaviour or offence in question; and punish the person. The Commissioner undertook a consultation running from the 1st July 2014 (the Commissioner’s press release on the consultation was published on his website http://www.cambridgeshire-pcc.gov.uk/anti-social-behaviour-say-community-remedy/). Following the consultation the Commissioner must take account of all views expressed by those consulted and then agree the Community Remedy document for Cambridgeshire with the Chief Constable. The Commissioner and the Chief Constable agreed the Community Remedy at the Business Coordination Board (“the Board”) meeting on the 2nd October 2014. The paper presented to the Board, and which was subsequently agreed to, is published on the Commissioner’s website at: http://www.cambridgeshire-pcc.gov.uk/business-coordination-board/

	Once the Community Remedy document has been agreed the Commissioner must publish it. The Commissioner has published the Community Remedy document on his website at: http://www.cambridgeshire-pcc.gov.uk/
