

Re: FOI Request – 4th March 2016

Dear Member of the Public

I am writing in reply to your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000, dated 26 March 2015.

The Freedom of Information Act 2000 (The Act) requires us to handle all requests in a manner that is blind to the identity of the requestor. Any information released in response to a request is regarded as being published, and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

You requested the following:

For each financial year since the position was created how much has the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner had to pay out in fines as a result of parking tickets issued to company cars?

Our response to your request is as follows:

Staff in the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner do not use company cars therefore there have been no parking tickets issued.

We trust that the information provided above meets your needs. However, if you are unhappy with this response, please see below 'satisfied with our service', which sets out your rights to appeal.

Yours sincerely,

Police and Crime Commissioner
