OUR SUPPLY CHAINS

We source goods, materials and services, including the following, directly from suppliers:

- Raw materials, principally related to the manufacture of paper and non – woven advanced materials; Product packaging and labelling; Marketing materials; office supplies; Engineering supplies; Couriers and shipping; waste, recycling and environmental services; Laboratory related services; Utilities; Recruitment; IT, Marketing, professional and training services.
OUR POLICIES ON SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING

We are committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains or in any part of our business. Our values reflect our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure slavery and human trafficking is not taking place anywhere in our supply chains.

We operate a thorough supplier selection process and have a close knowledge of key suppliers with whom we have long-standing relationships. We source a large majority of our goods and services from European and North American suppliers, in which regions modern slavery is not prevalent, but we recognise that certain goods/services and the countries from which they are sourced, may carry greater risk.

DUE DILIGENCE PROCESSES FOR SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING

As part of our initiative to identify and mitigate risk we will be putting in place systems to:

- Identify and assess potential risk areas in our supply chains.
- Mitigate the risk of slavery and human trafficking occurring in our supply chains.
- Monitor potential risk areas in our supply chains.
- Protect whistle blowers.

SUPPLIER ADHERENCE TO OUR VALUES

We have zero tolerance to slavery and human trafficking. To ensure all those in our supply chain and contractors comply with our values we will have a dedicated compliance team, which consists of representatives from the following departments:

- Audit and compliance.
- Human resources.
- Procurement.
- Sales.

TRAINING

To ensure a high level of understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our supply chains and our business, we will provide training to our staff. We will also ask our business partners to provide training to their staff and suppliers and providers.

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes our Group’s slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending 2 April 2016.
